1. The Station feels that perhaps we understated the degree of concealment as outlined in reference B. It is agreed that a sophisticated technical search would probably find the device we planted but all personnel at the Station involved with this operation agreed that such a search was most unlikely. The case officer dealing directly with LIRING-3 also minimized the possibility of LIRING-3 making any kind of a search. All of these points were considered before making the installation.

2. At the moment, we do not feel there is enough reason to justify the risks involved in another surreptitious entry. We will however remain alert and be prepared to take corrective action.

Subject: Analysis of LIFEAT Traffic Relating to LIRING/3 for the Period 19-26 April, 1967.

1. In reviewing the traffic for the period indicated Rowton found valuable confirmation of LIRING/3 and LIRING/4 contact with Raziro Abreu, indicating that both persons complied with Rowton's suggestions. LIRING/3's telephonic contacts with Enrique Morales in Guatemala City confirmed reports given to him (Rowton) before and after the event. The only item not reported to Rowton by LIRING/3 is a dinner engagement which Enrique Morales had in Guatemala City on 25/4/67 with "friends" of Morales' wife, Esperanza. SAN-10 (17.5) also reveals that LIRING/3 and Morales are engaged in some sort of deal for the purchase of purses or briefcases (bolsas) either in Guatemala or San Cristóbal for resale in Mexico City or import into the U.S. at a higher price. (LIRING/3 mentioned the opportunities in this line to Rowton previously, but Rowton did not react favorably).

2. The following are Rowton's comments on specific portions of the take which will serve to clarify them in relationship to reports made to him by LIRING/3 and LIRING/4:

LIRING/4 Contacts with Raziro Abreu: On 22/4/67, shortly after Rowton suggested that LIRING/4 recontact Abreu and attempt to effect through him a reconciliation with the local mission, LIRING/4 telephoned the Embassy and attempted to reach Abreu. From the content and tone of her questions and remarks, it appears obvious that LIRING/4 has not had recent contact with the Cuban mission. She asks when Abreu is leaving for Havana, but is given no information. She tries again at about 1900 and 2000, but there is no answer. She finally gets through to Abreu on 14-13-26 who promises to come to her home between 1000 and 1100 the following day (23/4/67). She has to give Abreu the address, indicating that he is not familiar with the home address of LIRING/3 or/4. SAN-10 (5.0, 8.2, 12.2) reveal that Abreu called or talked to LIRING/4 on the telephone three times on 24/4/67. LIRING/4 makes reference to "so much analysis, so many theories and ideas" which apparently were discussed between her and Abreu at their 23/4/67 conversation. Other remarks made both by LIRING/4 and Abreu indicate that Abreu is, or wants to become emotionally involved with LIRING/4, who at least in words appears to have encouraged him. These contacts were reported to Rowton in substance by LIRING/3, although Rowton has not as yet had a chance to talk directly with LIRING/4 to get her version of the conversations with Abreu. Apparently in order to put Abreu off (in his amorous designs) LIRING/4 tells him on 25/4/67 that her husband suspects that something is going on between them. In reply to Abreu's anxious questioning, LIRING/4 states that her husband asked her whether she liked Abreu and whether Abreu like her, to which she said that she replied in the affirmative (this apparently was calculated to cool Abreu off without alienating him). Abreu's visit to the apartment and his proposed luncheon date with LIRING/3 were confirmed by the latter in his report to Rowton on 27/4/67.

Conversations Re the Birth Certificate: In SAN-10 (2.5) LIRING/3 asks his Guatemalan friend (Jacobo Rodriguez Padilla?) whether it matters if the birth certificate is for a person 10 years older? Jacobo replied in the negative, but would prefer it of a person ten years younger. LIRING/3 promises to have the birth certificate in his possession by 25-26/4/67. This is the first confirmation Rowton has had of a statement made to him some two weeks previously that when he went to pick up the (false) birth certificate at Registro Civil on instructions of his half-brother (and the lawyer Rolando Riojas) he discovered that it was for a person born in 1946 and hence useless for himself. LIRING/3 also reported to Rowton that Jacobo had contacted him recently and asked for help in obtaining false papers for himself. The above conversation therefore would indicate that LIRING/3 plans to give Jacobo the false document originally procured for himself through his half-brother. LIRING/3, however, has not revealed this plan to Rowton. SAN-11 (10.0) reveals that LIRING/3 informed his brother two days later that he has spent over ten days at Registro Civil but it is "impossible to get the birth certificate. The book no longer exists." He adds that he has written his half-brother a letter explaining everything. LIRING/3 reported to Rowton that he had asked his half-brother to obtain an "acta notorial" in lieu of birth certificate and hoped to have the document soon.

She has to give Abreu the address, indicating that he is not familiar with the home address of LIRING/3 or/4.

SAN-10 (5.0,8.2,12.2) reveal that Abreu called or talked to LIRING/4 on the telephone three times on 24/4/67. LIRING/4 makes reference to "so much analysis, so many theories and ideas" which apparently were discussed between her and Abreu at their 23/4/67 conversation. Other remarks made both by LIRING/4 and Abreu indicate that Abreu is, or wants to become emotionally involved with LIRING/4, who at least in words appears to have encouraged him. These contacts were reported to Rowton in substance by LIRING/3, although Rowton has not as yet had a chance to talk directly with LIRING/4 to get her version of the conversations with Abreu. Apparently in order to put Abreu off (in his amorous designs) LIRING/4 tells him on 25/4/67 that her husband suspects that something is going on between them. In reply to Abreu's anxious questioning, LIRING/4 states that her husband asked her whether she liked Abreu and whether Abreu like her, to which she said that she replied in the affirmative (this apparently was calculated to cool Abreu off without alienating him). Abreu's visit to the apartment and his proposed luncheon date with LIRING/3 were confirmed by the latter in his report to Rowton on 27/4/67.

Conversations Re the Birth Certificate: In SAN-10 (2.5) LIRING/3 asks his Guatemalan friend (Jacobo Rodriguez Padilla?) whether it matters if the birth certificate is for a person 10 years older? Jacobo replied in the negative, but would prefer it of a person ten years younger. LIRING/3 promises to have the birth certificate in his possession by 25-26/4/67. This is the first confirmation Rowton has had of a statement made to him some two weeks previously that when he went to pick up the (false) birth certificate at Registro Civil on instructions of his half-brother (and the lawyer Rolando Riojas) he discovered that it was for a person born in 1916 and hence useless for himself. LIRING/3 also reported to Rowton that Jacobo had contacted him recently and asked for help in obtaining false papers for himself. The above conversation therefore would indicate that LIRING/3 plans to give Jacobo the false document originally procured for himself through his half-brother. LIRING/3, however, has not revealed this plan to Rowton. SAN-11 (16.0) reveals that LIRING/3 informed his brother two days later that he has spent over ten days at Registro Civil but it is "impossible to get the birth certificate. The book no longer exists." He adds that he has written his half-brother a letter explaining everything. LIRING/3 reported to Rowton that he had asked his half-brother to obtain an "acta notorial" in lieu of birth certificate and hoped to have the document soon.

Subject: Wallace B. Rowton meeting with LIRING/3. 11P

1. Rowton met with LIRING/3 at the safehouse at 1800 on 4 May, 1967. LIRING/3 reported that he had been working with the Secretariat of Commerce and Industry to obtain the license for the importation of the plastic flowers and that he had told Enrique Morales Guerra to stand by until the formalities of the license were completed. He added that as a matter of fact he had not made any commitment to Morales and did not feel under any obligation to continue to use him, even in the flower business, especially if Rowton had any further reservations about him.
2. Regarding his friend Sergio González Marin of the Secretariat of Commerce and Industry, LIRING/3 commented that, as he had reported previously to Rowton, the latter had formerly been a member of the Communist Party of Mexico, but was no longer active. LIRING/3 added that his sister, however, Silvia González Marin, was a very active member of the Party and married to a Raúl Moreno, who was also most probably a member of the Communist Party. LIRING/3 continued that both Raúl Moreno and Silva and himself (LIRING/3) had a mutual friend Sergio Valdez who had excellent contacts in extreme leftist circles. LIRING/3 added that Sergio Valdez was the son of the Siempre correspondent and associate of Alberto Domingo, as well as Rico Galán. According to LIRING/3, Sergio Valdez is not a formal party member and still a student of art at the University. LIRING/3 stated that he knew him fairly well since he had been one of his (LIRING/3's) students for several years. LIRING/3 added that Sergio Valdez' telephone number is 20-90-10, ext. 12.
3. In addition to the above, LIRING/3 recounted that about 2 May, 1967, in a conversation with Raúl Moreno, he had learned that Moreno is friendly with the FAR responsible for Propaganda at the National University. LIRING/3 commented that such a person would surely know "Garcia" of FAR, and that therefore he planned to arrange a meeting with him through Raúl Moreno at the first opportunity.
4. In preparation for a possible LCFLUTTER examination of LIRING/3 on 9 or 10 May, Rowton stated to him at the end of the meeting that he was preparing a number of questions that still bothered him so that LIRING/3 could give a definitive reply that would close the matter for once and all. LIRING/3 replied that he was anxious to answer any questions Rowton might have and hoped that this would resolve any problem and dispell any lingering doubts that Rowton might still have concerning his bona fides.

TDY REPORT FOR
Joseph H. RESCIGNO
11-20 May 1967

- I. Site: Mexico City, Mexico
- II. Dates: 11-20 May 1967
- III. Objective: The purpose of the trip by RESCIGNO was to provide support to the station on two priority audio operations (set up the LIRING/3 LP and the LIRUSTIC/1 installation). This support was provided in addition to the TDY support being rendered by Reginald S. JEMMON a replacement for CORNBURY who was on sick leave.
- IV. Chronology:

RESCIGNO departed National Airport for Mexico City via American Airlines at 0800, 11 May 1967 and arrived in Mexico City at 1400, 11 May 1967 (all times local). After checking into the Palace Hotel, R. reported to the Station by telephone. Station contact was made through SLINKARD who advised R. to come into the Station. R. discussed relative target priorities and then met with the respective case officers concerned with the operations. The rest of the day was spent checking out equipment for possible use on the LIRUSTIC/1 operation. The following day was spent planning and becoming familiar with the LIRUSTIC/1 operational situation, infiltrating equipment into the base/LP and setting up a cover story.

No operational work was planned for the above operation for the weekend; therefore, the LIRING/3 LP equipment was checked out and the LP equipment set up in the LP on Saturday. The equipment used was a T-204 Revere Recorder (110 VAC, 50 cycle) and an SPR-2A carrier current receiver. The occupant of the LP was briefed in the operation of the equipment. There was no conversation in the LP during the briefing; consequently, R. planned to return the following week to determine relative reference levels of all control settings to assist the LP operator in making his recordings. Entry into the target to inspect the installation was not considered operationally possible over the weekend and the case officer made plans with the LP operator for a meeting later in the week.

Monday through Thursday of the following week was devoted to the LIRUSTIC/1 installation which is the subject of a separate report.

RESCIGNO purchased a telephone locally to be used as a replacement for a defective instrument in the LP for the DMARGO operation. The existing telephone extension was malfunctioning and would ring only intermittently. Since the LP had some extra telephone cables terminating at the house, the case officer did not want to request a normal telephone company service call.

Thursday evening, 18 May 1967, was scheduled for testing the two installations that were completed on the LISAMPAN operation; however, upon reporting the successful installation in the LIEUSTIC/1 target, RESCIGNO was informed that the telephone company was to be working on the distribution box where the loop connections were to be made. Consequently, the testing of the installations was postponed until the telephone company personnel complete their work in the area.

On Friday morning, the LIRING/3 LP was again visited to check the operation of the equipment and to establish relative reference levels for the operator to obtain optimum results. The target was occupied and a recording was made of a telephone call and a discussion with a book salesman. The operation of the equipment was satisfactory. The technical details of the target installation were thoroughly reviewed in consideration of the operational situation. The case officer was completely satisfied that the type of installation was definitely adequate from a security standpoint in this particular situation. The target equipment was functioning normally with no technical problems; therefore, a re-entry into the target was not considered necessary. CORNBURY expressed a similar view when the operation was discussed with him that afternoon.

The page-boy system was discussed with the Station and RESCIGNO was informed that tests had been made and it was decided to install a higher gain antenna to reach outlying areas. The Station plans to put the system into operation as soon as the antenna is received and installed.

The LP for the LIRUSTIC/1 installation was set up on Friday on the trip from the Station to the airport. CORNBURY returned to the Station on Friday afternoon at 1430. RESCIGNO departed the same evening at 1800 because he was unable to obtain reservations for the return trip on Saturday or Sunday. This was caused by the holiday rush and RESCIGNO had been requested to be available at Headquarters the next week for another operation where his participation had been tentatively discussed.

RESCIGNO arrived in Washington on Saturday, 20 May 1967, at 1000.

Subject: Monthly Report of Developments in the LIRING/3 Operation, for the Period 1-30 April, 1967.

1. During the month of April, Rowton was able, through valuable leads furnished by LIFEAT intercepts, to put strong pressure on LIRING/3 to present acceptable proof of a number of statements that he had made to Rowton. At his meeting with LIRING/3 on 19 April, Rowton confronted LIRING/3 with suspicions he entertained concerning the proposed acquisition of a false birth certificate as well as the identity of "Garcia", the FAR representative. The session, which lasted over two hours, shook LIRING/3 so much emotionally that LIRING/4 became alarmed and telephoned Rowton's answering service the following morning. Rowton was able to exploit this opportunity to talk privately with LIRING/4 and to lay the foundation for an independent working relationship with her against targets of interest in the local mission.

2. In addition to initiating a positive effort to verify LIRING/3's bona fides and reliability, Rowton's confrontation paved the way toward a closer and more productive relationship with him in the future. LIRING/3 assured Rowton that he considered his work for Rowton the most important thing in his life and was willing to do anything to prove that his intentions were honorable and his reporting reliable. As a result Rowton is currently in a position to challenge any or all of LIRING/3's statements, and to give him much more specific direction than was possible in the past.

3. The following are Rowton's comments on specific developments during the month in summary form:

a) Developments with respect to Cuba: On 19 April, LIFEAT intercept SAN-7(9.0) revealed that both LIRING/3 and LIRING/4 were virtually isolated from the Cubans. In the conversation with the Mexican Rojas LIRING/3 stated that "he and his wife no longer have anything to do with those people", and LIRING/4, in conversation with the same person, added that she "feels like vomiting when she sees them". Both LIRING/3 and /4 admitted this situation to Rowton on 22 April when he talked to each privately. LIRING/4 explained her dislike for the Cuban employees of the mission originated in the "rude manner in which she was thrown out into the street" some six months previously. LIRING/3 confessed,

ATT TO HMMA 31933

CS COPY

201 79530/

that he could not explain why his close friends Arnol Rodriguez and René Ochoa had not communicated with him over the past month, despite his messages and telephone calls. He felt an uneasy suspicion that the Julian Lopez affair, as well as the Rico Galán letter, had caused certain elements locally and in Havana to become hostile toward him. LIRING/3 noted that Cepeda had been present when LIRING/4 had blown her top in the Ambassador's office and that he (LIRING/3) had turned down Cepeda's invitation to accompany him to Havana shortly after the return of Julian Lopez. In any case LIRING/3 agreed that the best, or, more candidly, the only course of action open to him was to play a waiting game and continue his work with the Guatemalans in the hope that the Cubans, sooner or later would recontact him. He stressed that only after he has established firm and viable cover through the plastic flower business will he be able to face a thorough interrogation by the DSE in Havana (which he expects, should he return at this time). He feels that he has ~~xxx~~ <sup>dealt with</sup> enough Greeks to date ( Economou, Frevolis, Batsakis, Gasdaglis, Arvanitis) in both Mexico City and Guatemala City, to justify his relationship with Rowton on a purely commercial level, should that become necessary.

LIRING/3 accepted Rowton's recommendation that LIRING/4 overcome her apparent visceral dislike for the Cubans in the mission and effect a reconciliation with them as soon as possible. After Rowton's personal appeal to her, she succeeded in recontacting Ramiro Abreu on 22 April, and remained in almost daily contact with him until he left Mexico on 30 April. Through Abreu she re-established contact with Curbelo, Cepeda, and other employees of the Consulate, including Enrique Cicard. This gave LIRING/3 an opportunity to chat with Abreu concerning his own situation with the result that Abreu promised to get some word out to LIRING/3 concerning the attitude of his friends in Havana. Abreu invited LIRING/3 back to Havana, but the latter turned this down diplomatically (for the reasons mentioned above).

b) Developments with Respect to Guatemala: The identity of "Garcia", the FAR representative, has continued to occupy the attention of Rowton. An attempt by the Station team to surveil Garcia when he allegedly picked up the medicine from LIRING/3 on 28 March was unsuccessful ( Rowton spotted LIRING/3 leaving his house at about 0815, just as the team was taking positions and before they could identify LIRING/3). Another opportunity to surveil LIRING/3, Garcia, as well as Enrique Morales, was lost on the evening of 8 April, because of the short notice Rowton has of the meeting.

they show at 1/17*

Matters, however, have been simplified after the confrontation of LIRING/3 by Rowton on 22 April, inasmuch as LIRING/3 promised to notify Rowton in advance of the next meeting with Garcia, explicitly for the purpose of Rowton's getting a look at Garcia to identify him. In addition on 1 May, LIRING/3 informed Rowton that Garcia had telephoned him the preceding day to set a date for their next meeting on 18 May, when Garcia stated he would be back from Guatemala. LIFEAT take for 30 April should confirm or refute this statement.

During the month LIRING/3 maintained contact with Jacobo Rodriguez Padilla Alicia Echeverría as well as Carmen Carrasco. LIFEAT intercepts confirmed LIRING/3 reports, at least as far as actual contact was concerned.

c) Developments with Respect to the False Birth Certificate: Upon his return from northern Mexico on 6 April, LIRING/3 reported that he had made arrangements to obtain a false birth certificate for future use through his half-brother and a certain lawyer named Rolando Riojas (for a 2,000 peso fee). LIFEAT intercepts aroused Rowton's suspicions concerning the role, if any, played by Riojas, and served as a basis for Rowton's heart-to-heart talk with LIRING/3 on 22 April. LIRING/3 claimed that the false birth certificate produced by his half-brother and Riojas was not suitable since it applied to a person born in 1916. This appears to have been the truth, as indicated in LIRING/3's conversation with Jacobo Rodriguez Padilla on 23 April (SAN-10(2.5), although Rowton still has doubts concerning the existence and role played by Rolando Riojas. Likewise, LIRING/3's report that his half-brother was to provide him with an affidavit in lieu of birth certificate in the name of Alberto Zárate Vidal, (a name chosen by LIRING/3 himself), was proved to be true when LIRING/4 gave Rowton the original~~s~~ of the court papers on 29 April.

d) Cover Aspects of the LIRING/3 Operation: During the first week of April LIRING/3 traveled to northern Mexico (Sabinas, Nuevo Laredo) and Del Rio, Texas, and, in collaboration with his half-brother and a certain Sergio Arche of Villa Acuña, established a notional company ("Floriex") in Del Rio as a buyer for the plastic flowers assembled in San Cristóbal. This was done, according to LIRING/3, in order to satisfy the requirements of the Secretariat of Commerce and Industry. Also on 19 April, LIRING/3, accompanied by Enrique Morales,<sup>Carrasco</sup> visited San Cristóbal to meet with Enrique Martínez and check on the rental of the proposed factory. The "Plastiflor de San Cristóbal" was registered as a company locally, and Enrique Morales continued on to Guatemala City where he met with Constantine Gasdaglis, manager of the Metaloplástica Guatemalteca (as per arrangements made by LIRING/7.

Subject: Monthly Report of Developments in the LIRING/3 Operation, for the Period 1-30 April, 1967.

1. During the month of April, Rowton was able, through valuable leads furnished by LIPANT intercepts, to put strong pressure on LIRING/3 to present acceptable proof of a number of statements that he had made to Rowton. At his meeting with LIRING/3 on 19 April, Rowton confronted LIRING/3 with suspicions he entertained concerning the proposed acquisition of a false birth certificate as well as the identity of "Garcia", the PMA representative. The session, which lasted over two hours, shook LIRING/3 so much emotionally that LIRING/4 became alarmed and telephoned Rowton's answering service the following morning. Rowton was able to exploit this opportunity to talk privately with LIRING/4 and to lay the foundation for an independent working relationship with her against targets of interest in the local mission.
2. In addition to initiating a positive effort to verify LIRING/3's bona fides and reliability, Rowton's confrontation paved the way toward a closer and more productive relationship with him in the future. LIRING/3 assured Rowton that he considered his work for Rowton the most important thing in his life and was willing to do anything to prove that his intentions were honorable and his reporting reliable. As a result Rowton is currently in a position to challenge any or all of LIRING/3's statements, and to give him much more specific direction than was possible in the past.
3. The following are Rowton's comments on specific developments during the month in summary form:
  - a) Developments with respect to Cuba: On 19 April, LIPANT intercept SAN-7(9.0) revealed that both LIRING/3 and LIRING/4 were virtually isolated from the Cubans. In the conversation with the Mexican Rojas LIRING/3 stated that "he and his wife no longer have anything to do with those people", and LIRING/4, in conversation with the same person, added that she "feels like vomiting when she sees them". Both LIRING/3 and /4 admitted this situation to Rowton on 22 April when he talked to each privately. LIRING/4 explained her dislike for the Cuban employees of the mission originated in the "rude manner in which she was thrown out into the street" some six months previously. LIRING/3 confessed that he could not explain why his close friends Arnal Rodriguez and René Cebosa had not communicated with him over the past month, despite his messages and telephone calls. He felt an uneasy suspicion that the Julian Lopez affair, as well as the Rico Galán letter, had caused certain elements locally and in Havana to become hostile toward him. LIRING/3 noted that Cepeda had been present when LIRING/4 had blown her top in the Ambassador's office and that he (LIRING/3) had turned down Cepeda's invitation to accompany him to Havana shortly after the return of Julian Lopez. In any case LIRING/3 agreed that the best, or, more candidly, the only course of action open to him was to play a waiting game and continue his work with the Guatemalans in the hope that the Cubans, sooner or later would recontact him. He stressed that only after he has established firm and viable cover through the plastic flower business will he be able to face a thorough interrogation by the DSE in Havana (which he expects, should he return at this time). He feels that he has <sup>dealt with</sup> ~~not~~ enough Greeks to date (Economou, Irevolis, Datsakis, Gasdaglis, Arvanitis) in both Mexico City and Guatemala City, to justify his relationship with Rowton on a purely commercial level, should that become necessary.

LIRING/3 accepted Rowton's recommendation that LIRING/4 overcome her apparent visceral dislike for the Cubans in the mission and effect a reconciliation with them as soon as possible. After Rowton's personal appeal to her, she succeeded in recontacting Ramiro Abreu on 22 April, and remained in almost daily contact with him until he left Mexico on 30 April. Through Abreu she re-established contact with Durbelo, Cepeda, and other employees of the Consulate, including Enrique Cicard. This gave LIRING/3 an opportunity to chat with Abreu concerning his own situation with the result that Abreu promised to get some word out to LIRING/3 concerning the attitude of his friends in Havana. Abreu invited LIRING/3 back to Havana, but the latter turned this down diplomatically (for the reasons mentioned above).

b) Developments with Respect to Guatemala: The identity of "Garcia", the FAR representative, has continued to occupy the attention of Rowton. An attempt by the Station team to surveil Garcia when he allegedly picked up the medicine from LIRING/3 on 28 March was unsuccessful (Rowton spotted LIRING/3 leaving his house at about 0815, just as the team was taking positions and before they could identify LIRING/3). Another opportunity to surveil LIRING/3, Garcia, as well as Enrique Morales, was lost on the evening of 3 April, because of the short notice Rowton has of the meeting.

Matters, however, have been simplified after the confrontation of LIRING/3 by Rowton on 22 April, inasmuch as LIRING/3 promised to notify Rowton in advance of the next meeting with Garcia, explicitly for the purpose of Rowton's getting a look at Garcia to identify him. In addition on 1 May, LIRING/3 informed Rowton that Garcia had telephoned him the preceding day to set a date for their next meeting on 18 May, when Garcia stated he would be back from Guatemala. LIFEAT take for 30 April should confirm or refute this statement.

During the month LIRING/3 maintained contact with Jacobo Rodriguez Padilla Alicia Echeverría as well as Carmen Carrasco. LIFEAT intercepts confirmed LIRING/3 reports, at least as far as actual contact was concerned.

c) Developments with respect to the False Birth Certificate: Upon his return from northern Mexico on 6 April, LIRING/3 reported that he had made arrangements to obtain a false birth certificate for future use through his half-brother and a certain lawyer named Rolando Riojas (for a 2,000 peso fee). LIFEAT intercepts aroused Rowton's suspicions concerning the role, if any, played by Riojas, and served as a basis for Rowton's heart-to-heart talk with LIRING/3 on 22 April. LIRING/3 claimed that the false birth certificate produced by his half-brother and Riojas was not suitable since it applied to a person born in 1916. This appears to have been the truth, as indicated in LIRING/3's conversation with Jacobo Rodriguez Padilla on 23 April (SAE-10(2.5)), although Rowton still has doubts concerning the existence and role played by Rolando Riojas. Likewise, LIRING/3's report that his half-brother was to provide him with an affidavit in lieu of birth certificate in the name of Alberto Zárate Vidal, (a name chosen by LIRING/3 himself), was proved to be true when LIRING/4 gave Rowton the originality of the court papers on 29 April.

d) Cover Aspects of the LIRING/3 Operation: During the first week of April LIRING/3 traveled to northern Mexico (Abilias, Nuevo Laredo) and Col Rio, Texas, and, in collaboration with his half-brother and a certain Sergio Arche of Villa Acuña, established a notional company ("Floriflex") in Del Rio as a buyer for the plastic flowers assembled in San Cristóbal. This was done, according to LIRING/3, in order to satisfy the requirements of the Secretariat of Commerce and Industry. Also on 19 April, LIRING/3, accompanied by Enrique Morales, visited San Cristóbal to meet with Enrique Martínez and check on the rental of the proposed factory. The "Plastiflor de San Cristóbal" was registered as a company locally, and Enrique Morales continued on to Guatemala City where he met with Col. Constantine Gasdaglis, manager of the Metaloplástica Guatemalteca (as per arrangements made by LIRING/7.

Subject: Wallace B. Rowton Meeting with LIRING/3.

1. Rowton met with LIRING/3 at the safehouse (Tacubaya) briefly at 1000 on 1 May, 1967. LIRING/3 reported that "Garcia" had telephoned him on the preceding day to tell him that he had to make another trip, this time to Guatemala and that he would be returning on 18 May, 1967. LIRING/3 added that Garcia indicated that he would see LIRING/3 on that date or a few days thereafter, and planned to introduce him to a friend who would be in a position to see him more frequently in the future. LIRING/3 told Rowton he again mentioned the payment for the medicines and Garcia assured him that it would be settled at their next meeting.

2. LIRING/3 also reported that Abreu departed on 30 April, rather than on 29 April, as anticipated. He said that he had therefore had a chance to meet with Abreu again. The latter encouraged him to keep in touch with him and promised to get some sort of message to LIRING/3 from Arnol Rodriguez and/or Cienfuegos. According to LIRING/3 Abreu asked him whether he would be willing to visit his friends in Havana again in the near future to discuss his situation personally, indicating that he would arrange for an invitation as soon as he returned. LIRING/3 told Rowton he thanked Abreu but stated that at the moment he was very busy with his commercial obligations and could not find the time. He assured Abreu that as soon as he got things rolling in San Cristóbal and Guatemala, he would welcome the chance to visit Havana again.

3. LIRING/3 then stated that he and LIRING/4 had talked over the matter of her father's visit at length, and had also talked again to him by telephone (in response to his two calls), and had come to the conclusion that it was more practical that LIRING/4's father come to Mexico City after all, since a trip to Montreal was too costly and it appeared impossible to convince LIRING/4's father that he should not come to visit his daughter at her home. LIRING/3 added that he planned to have LIRING/4 take her father on as many excursions as possible outside Mexico City to keep his visit as quiet as possible. He said that in any event LIRING/4's father could not make the trip before 20 May, 1967, when his vacation would begin.

4. LIRING/3 then mentioned that both he and LIRING/4 felt that they should return to the Tacubaya apartment to live. He explained that LIRING/4 had originally moved into the former safehouse at his request to satisfy the curiosity of the landlady, sra. Sanchez. He felt that this had already been accomplished and sra Sanchez was not likely to ask any further questions. Also both he and LIRING/4 were worried about suspicions that might be aroused on the part of the local Embassy and Consular staff if they continued to reside there. Abreu had already raised his eyebrows slightly and appeared satisfied with LIRING/3's explanation that he had rented the apartment for some friends who were out of the country temporarily. LIRING/4 is not comfortable in the apartment, especially since she may have to face her former colleagues frequently if she resumes her work in the Consulate. According to LIRING/3, she feels they are better off in relatively modest surroundings, since they have fewer questions to answer and explanations to give. Their old apartment (tacubaya) also has two separate bedrooms and would be more convenient when her father comes to visit them. LIRING/3 stated that he could, of course, continue to use the Atoyac apartment to see Rowton and meet discreetly with his contacts, as previously.

5. In view of the above, Rowton suggested that LIRING/3 inform his friends, particularly the Cubans, that the Atoyac apartment had been rented for his Greek friends from Guatemala and Venezuela who planned to establish a plastics factory here in Mexico and needed a place to stay during their visits. LIRING/3 felt this would be acceptable, since by now he had good working contacts with Batsakis and Gasdaglis in Guatemala City and would soon be seeing Arvanitis and possibly others. Rowton also suggested that if it became necessary to explain his contacts with the Greeks to the Cubans, he should say that his original contact was with Pandelis Economou re the importation of Metaxas cognac (this is true) and that he had met Stylianos Prevolis and continued to work through him on the recommendation of Economou (when the latter returned to Athens).

6. LIRING/3 stated that he planned to revisit his friends in the Secretariat of Commerce (particularly a señor Llamas of the Plastics Committee) to obtain the import license for the first shipment of disassembled flowers to San Cristóbal.

1. Roston met with LIRING/3 at the safehouse (Tacubaya) briefly at 1000 on 1 May, 1967. curiosity of the landlady, Mrs. Sanchez. He felt that this had already been accomplished and Mrs. Sanchez was not likely to ask any further questions. Also both he and LINDS/4 were worried about suspicions that might be aroused on the part of the local Embassy and Consular staff if they continued to reside there. Abree had already raised his eyebrows slightly and appeared satisfied with LINDS/3's explanation that he had rented the apartment for some friends who were out of the country temporarily. LINDS/4 is not comfortable in the apartment, especially since she may have to face her former colleagues frequently as she resumes her work in the Consulate. According to LINDS/3, she feels they are better off in relatively modest surroundings, since they have fewer questions to answer and explanations to give. 29 April, 1967

Subject: Wallace B. Rowton Meeting with LIRING/3.

1. Rowton met with LIRING/3 at the safehouse at 1800 on 27 April, and at 0845 on 29 April, 1967. At the first meeting LIRING/3 gave Rowton the new letterhead paper of the Plastifor de San Cristóbal company and reported that he had been in telephonic contact with Enrique Morales in Guatemala City and has passed on to him Rowton's message instructing him, (as per LIRING/7's suggestion) to contact Mr. Constantinos Gasdaglis of the Metaloplástica Guatemalteca to be shown through the factory and given some unassembled samples of the plastic flowers. This had been suggested by LIRING/7 inasmuch as Mr. Angelo Arvanitis had not arrived in Guatemala City from Caracas as anticipated.
2. At both meetings LIRING/3 reported almost daily contact with Ramiro Abreu either personally or by phone. He stated that he had had a private talk with Abreu, in which the latter attempted to smooth over the apparent difficulties LIRING/3 was having with the Cubans, by stating that nobody really had anything against LIRING/3. When the latter showed his dissatisfaction with such a brush-off, Abreu mumbled something about the Julian Lopez affair and added that there were "certain things he was not in a position to discuss". Abreu insinuated that Cepeda was more or less hostile, although he himself did not share Cepeda's attitude. At this point LIRING/3 inserted the comment that when LIRING/4 blew up some six months ago (on the day that she was fired) in the Ambassador's office, Cepeda was present, and he apparently resented the action even more than the Ambassador. LIRING/3 agreed with Rowton that in light of the current situation the best course of action would be to give LIRING/4 a chance to re-establish cordial relations with her former colleagues, particularly Cepeda, since she had the advantage of being a Cuban and former employee herself.
3. With regard to other comments made by Abreu, LIRING/3 stated that he definitely felt that Abreu was making a pitch for direct and continuing contact with him, even after Abreu returned to Havana. LIRING/3 stated to Rowton that he gently brushed this off, stating to Abreu that he had certain understandings with Arnol Rodriguez and Saamán Cienfuego and for that reason did not feel free to enter into any operational relationship with anyone else. He concluded this discussion with a comment that if Abreu could somehow get a message to him from either Arnol Rodriguez or Cienfuego designating Abreu as their liaison, LIRING/3 would be glad to accommodate. LIRING/3 added to Rowton that he gave Abreu a sketchy idea of what he was doing in establishing commercial ties with both Guatemala and Texas, Abreu appeared intensely interested and when LIRING/3 showed him the letterhead of the new "company" in San Cristóbal, Abreu snapped up the paper and envelope and slipped them into his pocket. LIRING/3 told Rowton that he expressed to Abreu his intention of continuing his efforts along the commercial lines, regardless of the lack of enthusiasm shown to him by the Cubans.

4. At the 29 April meeting LIRING/3 reported to Rowton that Enrique Morales had returned safely from Guatemala City, after having met with Constantine Gasdaglis and obtained from him samples of the flowers. Since Rowton had almost reached the conclusion that LIRING/3 has known Enrique Morales for several years (contrary to his story that he met him through "Garcia") Rowton threw in at this point the comment that he had been checking on Morales, through a Mexican Dunn and Bradstreet type firm he uses in business, and found that Morales has a poor credit rating, is married, and is an artist by profession (actual source of this info is LIFEAT intercepts). LIRING/3 appeared surprised at the accuracy of Rowton's report and admitted that Morales was a painter, although he did not earn enough from his work to live. LIRING/3 also stated that Morales had used the 500 pesos payment he had made to him to liquidate an overdue loan at a bank, but that he was currently out of debt and in good credit standing.

5. At the same meeting LIRING/3 reported that he had been in touch with his half-brother regarding the false birthcertificate and informed his half-brother that the one presented to him was for a man born in 1916 and hence useless for his own ~~xx~~ purposes. According to LIRING/3, his brother proposed an even better idea, the procurement of an "acta notorial" in which it would state that the person named therein had never been registered. LIRING/3 pointed out that this would be more valid legally even than a birthcertificate since it would be issued by a court rather than simply by the Registro Civil. He then added that he might fortunately kill two birds with one stone, but using the affidavit in lieu of birth certificate for himself and give the false birthcertificate to his friend Jacobo (Rodriguez Badilla) who had asked him to help procure a false document. Rowton agreed that this would be the best solution and ask when LIRING/3 hoped to have the papers. He replied that his half-brother had already sent the acta notorial on the morning bus from Sabinas (Coah.) and that he was to pick it up from the bus driver early that same afternoon.

6. LIRING/3 then reported to Rowton that the Consulate had asked LIRING/4 to come back to work on a part-time basis. According to LIRING/3, both he and LIRING/4 dragged their feet on any commitment until they could refer the matter to Rowton. LIRING/3 commented that the thought of LIRING/4 being again in such close contact with such types did not make him happy but he agreed with Rowton that this perhaps would serve to re-establish his own relationship with them. LIRING/3 admitted that it had been very convenient to have LIRING/4 inside the establishment, especially since she could pick up messages for him and keep her ear to the ground and her eyes open for gossip. Rowton replied that in view of this development he felt that he should have another private chat with LIRING/4 and asked LIRING/3 to inform her that he would be calling on her that afternoon at about 1700. LIRING/3 discreetly stated that he planned to be out at that time in any case seeing his children (by his ex-wife).

7. Rowton spent some 90 minutes with LIRING/4 at her home that afternoon. She reported that she had made out much better than expected with Abreu, who came running when she telephoned him shortly after Rowton left her on the evening of 22 April. She added that he came to the house that evening in the company of Curbelo and made a date to see her again the next morning. She commented that Abreu, who had always had a sort of crush on her, was delighted and pleasantly surprised by her initiative. He confessed that he thought LIRING/4 wanted a visa to go back home, and was relieved to find that she was not in any difficulty. LIRING/4, in her typical candid manner, admitted that Abreu's interest in her was probably personal, but she felt that she had accomplished what Rowton wanted in her own feminine way. Rowton congratulated her and asked her to continue her efforts, particularly with Cepeda and the others in the mission.

8. LIRING/4 then explained that on her visit to the Embassy, Abreu, in the presence of Cepeda and others, almost jokingly said they were understaffed and why didn't LIRING/4 come back to help them out in the office. LIRING/4 told Rowton that she immediately showed interest but did everything she could from appearing overenthusiastic. She commented to Rowton that one must not run after such people, but make them dance a bit first so that they would appreciate anything they get. LIRING/4 continued that she replied to Abreu that she would think it over, but in any case would not want a repetition of the treatment she received last time. All sorts of assurances were given to her, but, despite this she made no commitment since she wished to talk the offer over with LIRING/3 and Rowton.

9. LIRING/4 also reported that she had met the new consul, Enrique Cicard, and found him rather pleasant. She said that she planned to invite him to dinner on evening soon so that LIRING/3 could chat with him. LIRING/4 then commented that the only problem with ~~KIRIX~~ Cicard would be ~~Sarambu~~ <sup>ESGARAIN</sup> in the Press Office (as Rowton recalls) who was Cicard's roommate. She explained that Sarambu was a member of the Communist Party and appeared to be a tough nut to crack. She surprised Rowton by adding that Cepeda appeared easier to her, the only problem with him was how to find an opening - some common interest she could exploit. Also regarding the part-time work, she said that she did not take it too seriously, since Araceli and Mirabal were coming back from Havana and hence they would not be so short-handed. Rowton mentioned she might also offer to help the Mexican Rojas who had telephoned her recently. She agreed and commented that Rojas had told her that he had finally been invited into Havana for a brief visit.

10. Rowton then brought up the problem of LIRING/4's father. LIRING/4 confirmed what LIRING/3 had told Rowton that morning, i.e. that her father had just announced that he had succeeded in obtaining the visitor's visa from New York and that when she had telephoned him suggesting they meet in San Antonio (to avoid his appearing in Mexico City at this time), her father had balked, saying that if he were coming all the way to San Antonio he might as well continue on a little more and go to Mexico City. LIRING/4 explained to Rowton that she could not possibly get across to her father the real reason she wanted to meet him in the U.S. (to avoid arousing suspicions on the apt of such types as Cepeda) and she had to let the matter drop. She added that there was also the problem of the visa to the U.S. which she did not want in her passport. Rowton offered to obtain the visa through business friends in Houston rather painlessly, but LIRING/4 insisted that this would be a needless risk in the eyes of Cepeda just at a time when she might be required. She concluded that the only solution appeared to be Montreal where she could go without arousing suspicion (she commented that Cepeda had told her that he intended to visit Canada in the near future). She felt she could reduce some of the expense by traveling part way by bus. (Another thought that has occurred to Rowton is that she might travel via Havana, although he has not as yet mentioned this to either LIRING/4 or LIRING/3).

~~Rowton~~

11. During the meeting LIRING/4 presented Rowton with the "Acta Notorial" which LIRING/3 had mentioned to Rowton that same morning. She said that LIRING/3 had asked her to show the document to Rowton which he already knew about. Rowton took one of the three copies and told LIRING/4 that he would study it at his leisure. The document is issued in apparently proper legal form by Judge Rogelio Sanchez F., Secretary of the Civil Court of the Third Tribunal of the First Instance of the Judicial District of Monclava, Sabinas, Coahuila, and represents an affidavit of Elias Piña Diaz and Antonio Rodriguez Lozano to the effect that a certain Alberto Zarate Vidal was born 7 September, 1929 in Ejido Puente Negro of Sabinas, the son of Enrique Zárate Reyes and Bertha Vidal de Zárate, but that his birth was not previously registered by the parents. The witnesses, Piña and Rodriguez, stated under oath that they knew this to be a fact from personal knowledge of the parents. In the document Elias Piña Diaz was described as a Mexican, married, native of Abasco, Coah., employed, resident of Mineral de Nueva Rosita, Col. San Luisita 179, Coah. Antonio Rodriguez Lozano is described as a Mexican, widower, municipal employee, native of Buenaventura, Coah., resident of Mineral de Nueva Rosita, Calle Dos de Abril CK-825. Attached herewith is a copy of the affidavit for station and Headquarters files.

1. Careful review developments LIRING/3 operation, confirmed by opinion LIRING/3, LIRING/4 and LIFEAT intercepts, reveals LIRING/3 virtually isolated from Cubans or as yet undetermined reasons. In effort resolve this problem, Rowton had heart-to-heart talk with LIRING/4 on 22 April (with knowledge and approval LIRING/3) in which he discovered LIRING/4 has intense dislike local employees and has avoided contact because of "brutal manner she thrown out on street". She commented that only person who has shown sympathy is Ramiro Abreu who appeared embarrassed over incident but has not as yet apologized to her personally. She appeared disperse Curbelo and Cepeda and commented that her replacement (Araceli) is "member communist party and hence impossible get close to".
2. Rowton, sensing that LIRING/4 estrangement might have some bearing on Cuban attitude toward LIRING/3, appealed to LIRING/4 to suppress her personal sentiments and try effect reconciliation. She agreed to do so in interest her husband and out of respect for judgement Rowton. She volunteered telephone Abreu for appointment and convince him she had buried the hatchet in the hope that Abreu would carry in to Havana better impression.
3. To ROWTON ~~XXXXXX~~ surprise LIFEAT reveals LIRING/4 made valiant and successful effort see Abreu shortly after she talked with Rowton on 22 April. She spent several hours with him on 23 April and subsequent intercepts reveal Abreu delighted with LIRING/4 initiative in contacting him again, commenting that "it is something so new and unexpected." Abreu asked her, however, not call him at Consulate, explaining that she "knew the reason why". According LIRING/3, Abreu talked with him privately on 26 April and explained he personally had nothing against LIRING/3 or /4, but there were "certain things he not in position discuss". Abreu brought up Julian Lopez case, apparently as example, but agreed with LIRING/3 that he had acted in best interests Cuba. Abreu also insinuated that Cepeda was hostile element (LIRING/3 pointed out to Rowton for first time that when LIRING/4 told Ambassador off some six months ago re Delay in his visa that Cepeda present). LIRING/3 promised Rowton do everything possible effect conciliation with Cepeda since he appears to be key ~~XXXX~~ ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ obstacle.
4. At 22 April meeting with Rowton, LIRING/4 commented that she very disappointed that Mexicans turned down visa application her father. She anxious see him and permit him know his grandchild before it is too late.

since he is now "old man living alone in New York." When Rowton suggested that local Cubans might view her father's appearance on scene with jaudiced eye, she agreed it best see her father outside Mexico. Both she and LIRING/3 delighted at suggestion Rowton that she meet him in Montreal during exposition but turned down idea when relatively high cost of travel ascertained. LIRING/4 has accepted only other alternative to meet father in San Antonio, provided she can get across border. LIRING/3 half-brother has volunteered escort her through Eagle Pass but only for one day at a time. Rowton has promised look into possibility his arranging crossing through business friends in Houston.

5. Inasmuch as LIRING/4 has demonstrated her willingness and ability to develop contacts with local Cubans under Rowton direction with encouragement LIRING/3, it is felt that trip to San Antonio to see father would pay off in long term orientation toward West and further obligation to Rowton personally.

6. If Hdqtrs has body in San Antonio who could take LIRING/4 and child in tow there would be little risk in her going astray in strange country. Other alternative would be for Rowton personally escort her across border (both LIRING/3 and /4 assumed Rowton can pass without difficulty) and meet her father as business friend LIRING/3. To reduce surprise that Rowton would go this extent accommodate LIRING/4, Rowton could allege he must travel in any case for business reasons.

Action Required: Furnish comments  Reference : HAMA-31721, 3 April 1967 Headquarters notes in reference that the method of concealment used in bugging LIRING-3's apartment, i.e., accomodating the SPT-2A in a hole below the wall outlet box and taping the microphone to the outlet itself, is considered by the Station to be adequate in view of the lack of sophistication of the target personalities. We are somewhat surprised by this since we had thought that one of the reasons for making the installation was to determine just how sophisticated and reliable LIRING-3 and company were, that is, whether or not LIRING-3 might be working for the opposition. This point might not have come through clearly in HMMW-15337, 20 March 1967, and if so, we would like to take this opportunity to emphasize that one of the reasons we have been following this involved case so closely is to guard against the possibility that LIRING-3 is more sophisticated than is apparent on the surface (or is himself being handled by a sophisticated opposition case officer). If so, we obviously cannot afford to assume that reference installation is adequate since it would appear to be quite easily discoverable by superficial examination by someone with some degree of sophistication and a screwdriver and flashlight. The Station acted correctly in MEXICO CITY 0861 in describing and seeking approval for the installation, and we must confess that it just never occurred to us that LIRING-3 et. al. might be considered to lack sophistication in this regard. We would therefore welcome further Station comments Continued.... Distribution:  2 - COS, Mexico City

SUBJECT KAPOK/PBRUMEN - The LIRING-3 Operation		MICROFILM
ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES
ACTION REQUIRED: FYI 1. Forwarded herewith as Attachment One are five reports prepared by Wallace B. ROWTON on the LIRING-3 operation. These reports are dated 13, 19, 22 (two reports) and 24 April 1967. 2. LIFEAT coverage of LIRING-3's apartment was started on 6 April. A review of the LIFEAT take for the period of 6 to 12 April indicated to ROWTON that LIRING-3 may not have been telling him the truth on a number of minor points. One of these was whether or not Rolando RIGUAS, the Nuevo Laredo lawyer who can provide false birth certificates (on the basis of which Mexican passports can later be obtained), exists. ROWTON took up the question of the lawyer and other points dealing with Enrique MORALES and "GARCIA" with LIRING-3. The latter appeared crushed that ROWTON had doubts about the sincerity of some of his statements. He swore that the lawyer really exists and offered to give ROWTON all pertinent details of his next meeting with "GARCIA" so that ROWTON can have a look at the Guatemalan "from a distance." Such an arrangement should greatly simplify the task of the LIEMBRACE team, the next time "GARCIA" and LIRING-3 meet. LIRING-3 also admitted that his wife was becoming more and more upset about his "clandestine" activities, and that his relations with the Cubans were at a low point. After his meeting with ROWTON on 19 April, when the above was discussed, the LIEMBRACE team followed LIRING-3 from his old house (now used for his meetings with ROWTON) directly to the Cuban Embassy. only stayed there about five minutes, however, and later volunteered the fact that he briefly visited the Embassy to ROWTON, giving a satisfactory explanation. 3. A review of the LIFEAT take from 12 to 19 April showed that LIRING-3 had deceived ROWTON on a couple of additional points. One of these was that LIRING-3 called his Honduran friend Rene OCHOA in Cuba, when he told ROWTON that he phoned Arnol RODRIGUEZ. Faced with the fact that the number he called was not Arnol's (ROWTON pays LIRING-3's phone bills), LIRING-3 said that OCHOA was the best friend he had in Cuba and admitted that he had not been in contact with RODRIGUEZ for some time. As can be seen from his reports, a major effort was made by ROWTON to convince LIRING-3 and especially his wife that the two should take the initiative and make an effort to improve their relations with the Cubans in general and the personnel of the local Cuban Embassy in particular. It became evident in the process that his lack of good relations with the Cubans has been bothering LIRING-3 and has been partly responsible for his depressed moods which, in turn, upset his wife. The latter is particularly disgusted with the people in the Cuban Embassy for what she considers the poor treatment they gave her husband prior to the latter's last trip to Cuba (Headquarters will recall that she was fired at that time for telling off the Cuban Ambassador). 4. There is little question that ROWTON played his cards well with LIRING-3 and especially his wife who agreed to reestablish contact with the local Cubans to help ROWTON and her husband. As can be seen from ROWTON's last report, the Cubans were quick to seize the opportunity to develop better relations with LIRING-3's wife and, through her, LIRING-3. The latter was having lunch with Ramiro Abreau Padron on 26 April as this dispatch was being written. 5. Enrique MORALES, meanwhile, is in Guatemala to receive instruction in the art of making plastic flowers from Angelo ARVANITIS. He carried with him a letter of introduction written by LIRING-7. It was necessary to clinch the plastic flower deal which will serve to cover LIRING-3's activities with the Guatemalan rebels, to use LIRING-7 to vouch for LIRING-3 with Angelo ARVANITIS. ROWTON has been instructed, however, not to bring LIRING-3 and LIRING-7 together and to pass LIRING-7 off simply as a friend in the Embassy of the nationality which ROWTON uses in dealing with LIRING-3. 6. Forwarded As Attachment Two, under separate cover, is a photocopy of a document from the Mexican Secretariat of Gobernacion notifying LIRING-3's wife that the visa application for her father, now in the United States, has been denied. This is not too surprising in view of the father's current nationality and racial background. Raymond A. Fardge for Willard C. CURTIS

Subject: Analysis of LIFEAT Traffic Relating to LIRING/3
for the Period 6-12 April, 1967.

1. The LIFEAT take on LIRING/3's home was reviewed by Rowton for the period 6-12 April, 1967, and found to be generally corroborative of LIRING/3's reports to Rowton at their regular meetings. Many useful details of his relationship with such persons as Enrique Morales and his half-brother were revealed to Rowton and provide valuable insights into the operation. The following are Rowton's comments on specific portions of the take that may serve to explain them more fully:

A) Conversations with Enrique Morales: Morales is the Mexican recommended to LIRING/3 by Garcia on 22 March, 1967, to handle the plastic flower business in San Cristóbal. Garcia gave LIRING/3 the telephone number 64-36-96, after having alerted Morales that LIRING/3 would be calling for an interview. LIRING/3 described Morales as a young Mexican, aged about 35, married with a family, employed in some sort of printing work, and "non-political". Garcia had told him that Morales was a close personal friend but not witting of operational activities of FAR or of the overall plan for the shipment of arms under cover of the plastic flower business. LIRING/3 spoke with Morales, by name, three times during the period indicated. The conversation on both sides concerned business arrangements being made by LIRING/3 in the north and proposed travel by Morales to Guatemala as well as efforts being made by Morales to obtain a military service card and passport. All this was reported promptly to Rowton by LIRING/3 except the details re the military service card and the passport. There was no mention of Garcia, and only one possible reference to Rowton ("that man" - 6/4/67: SAN-1 (4.6). LIRING/3 has told Rowton that he already has told Morales that he has a partner in the plastic flower business with whom he must check out certain details.

The only points in the conversations with Morales not already known to Rowton are references to a camera, which Morales, apparently at LIRING/3 request, looked at and checked the price ($600) in Sears Roebuck, and to "Handbags" (Bolsas). These are probably items that LIRING/3 and Morales are arranging to purchase in San Cristóbal at low cost and sell in Mexico City (LIRING/3 mentioned this to Rowton at one point). Rowton cannot explain the reference to the camera, but thinks it may be for Garcia.

CGA. #16 HMMA-31916

ES COPY

50-6-128/3

Another item not understandable to Rowton is a reference by Morales to his having written to Enrique Martinez in San Cristóbal and to having sent him money for which acknowledgement had not been received. Rowton is aware that LIRING/3 forwarded some money by cable to Martinez for the rental of the house, but was not informed by LIRING/3 of Morales' having also done so. Rowton suspects this manoeuvre may have been to purchase the bolsas mentioned above.

There appears also a mysterious reference to a "house" made by Morales on 12/4/57 that Rowton cannot explain. Morales states that he would probably be going "to the house" that night. LIRING/3 does not understand and asks, "Where?" To which Morales simply replies, "To the house". LIRING/3 replies simply, "Oh, yes." This could be a reference to something like the "Casa de las Americas" rather than a safehouse.

B) Conversation Concerning the (False) Birthcertificate: LIRING/3 reported to Rowton that he had arranged through a Nuevo Laredo lawyer named Rolando Riojas, recommended and introduced to him by his half-brother, to obtain a birthcertificate with which he could apply for a false passport. This had been urged on him by both Ismail Suarez de la Paz and Garcia himself to conceal travel into Cuba and Guatemala. LIRING/3 stated to Rowton that he had been instructed by Riojas to appear at the Registro Civile of Mexico City and the birthcertificate would be given to him by an official identified to him only by number. LIRING/3 added that no name had as yet been determined, since it would be necessary for the lawyer to find an unused birthcertificate. LIRING/3 reported that the lawyer had demanded a 2,000 peso fee and that, since he had only 500 pesos to spare, his half-brother loaned him 1,500 pesos on the spot. LIRING/3 asked Rowton for this amount on 7/4/57 so that he could reimburse his half-brother, and then on second thought, since it was a bit urgent, asked Rowton himself to cable the money with the message "I'm repaying the loan. Thank you". There may be deception here inasmuch as in his conversation with his half-brother LIRING/3 states "Don't pay any attention to the text, which is 'I thank you for the loan'". No reference is made to a lawyer or Rolando Riojas. Furthermore LIRING/3 tells his half-brother that he went to Registro Civil but the certificate had not as yet arrived. He asks the two names of the parents. His half-brother replies giving what appears to be the matronymic of LIRING/3. This makes Rowton think that perhaps the lawyer Rolando Riojas, despite the receipt obtained by LIRING/3 does not exist. This can be checked out in Nuevo Laredo.

It is possible that LIRING/3's half-brother is arranging the procurement of the false birth certificate from their own family records and that LIRING/3 is paying him the 1,500 pesos, after having put in a claim for 2,000 pesos, allegedly from Rolando Riojas. Before confronting LIRING/3 with this, Rowton would prefer to check out the lawyer Rolando Riojas. He could also mention more or less casually to LIRING/3 that he, Rowton, might want to get into direct touch with Riojas himself to obtain a false birth certificate some time in the future. LIRING/3's reaction should clarify the matter, or at least open the way for close questioning by Rowton.

C) Conversations with an unidentified woman: on 11/4/67 and 12/4/67 an unidentified woman telephoned LIRING/3. During the first call he asks whether she will be "there" the next day. When she replies that she will not be there because she has to go to school, he asks that she call the following day. She does so, but LIRING/3, apparently unable to talk freely, simply says that he will call her later. This woman may be one of LIRING/3's art students, sra. Bertha Wigisser, who was known to have met with LIRING/3 at the safehouse apartment during the period when the apartment was under technical surveillance. A comparison of her voice on the reels from this surveillance and the LIRING/3 reel 65 SAN 3 (20.6) may bear this assumption out.

Subject: Wallace B. Rowton Meeting with LIRING/3.

1. Rowton met with LIRING/3 on 19 April, 1967, from about 1810 until 1930 in the Tacubaya apartment. Rowton came to the meeting prepared to question LIRING/3 in detail concerning certain apparent discrepancies that had come to Rowton's attention, principally through his study of LIFEAT intercepts of the preceding week. Rowton had requested a surveillance of LIRING/3 immediately after this meeting so that any unusual contacts he might make after his bout with Rowton could be discovered.
2. During the first part of the meeting Rowton permitted LIRING/3 to make his usual report of developments since the last meeting. LIRING/3 stated that he and Enrique Morales were prepared to depart for San Cristóbal the following morning at 0830 on Mexicana, and, in fact, Morales was waiting for him at his (LIRING/3's) home at that moment, so that he could give him final instructions. It was agreed that LIRING/3 would return to Mexico City on 22 or 23 April, 1967, and that Morales would stand by in San Cristóbal until he received word from LIRING/3 by phone that he could proceed on to Guatemala City to contact Angelos Arvanitis. LIRING/3 asked Rowton's permission to give Morales 1,200 pesos which are required on entering Guatemala and which he could use for living expenses for the ten or twelve day trip. Rowton agreed that this would be necessary and promised to let LIRING/3 know of Arvanitis' STA in Guatemala City as soon as possible, so that Morales would not have to waste time and money standing by in San Cristóbal. Rowton then gave LIRING/3 the letter of introduction to Arvanitis written at his request by LIRING/7 the previous evening.
3. At this point Rowton opened up with his questioning. He prefaced his remarks with a statement that he felt his experience over many years had given him a strong intuitive sense and accustomed him to looking carefully at all angles of human nature. He then stated that the affair of the birth certificate (false) did not ring true for some reason. He stated frankly that he did not think that the lawyer Rolando Riojas existed and was inclined to believe that LIRING/3's half-brother invented this personage to collect the fee of 2,000 pesos himself (despite the presence of a receipt signed by Riojas). LIRING/3 appeared crushed at this, commenting that what hurt him most was that Rowton could doubt his reliability and even think that he could act in any way dishonestly with regard to Rowton. He then reaffirmed that his half-brother had introduced him in Nuevo Laredo to a person using the name Roland Riojas and claiming to be a lawyer. LIRING/3 added that he could not swear that this person resided in Nuevo Laredo (it might be Saltillo, as he recalled from a comment of his half-brother), but in any case he stated that he could clarify the whole matter rather simply by telephoning his half-brother that very evening and asking him for the address of the lawyer Riojas and his telephone number. Rowton could then check it out as he wished. He added that as soon as he obtained the false birth certificate that also could be checked out by Rowton - to remove any doubt in his mind that it was not a genuine document as promised to him by Riojas. Rowton agreed that this course would be best for both himself and LIRING/3 for their own protection.

4. Rowton then proceeded to another matter that he stated was bothering him. He explained that neither he nor LIRING/3 knew almost nothing about Garcia and he did not exclude that he was, for instance, a DSE agent working with the Guatemalans. LIRING/3 excluded this, but agreed that as much data on Garcia must be collected and/or elicited as possible. He asked Rowton whether he had succeeded in finding Garcia's photograph among the suspect Guatemalans in the Gobernación rogues' gallery (Rowton had alleged that he had access to this through friends in Gobernación). When Rowton replied that he had not as yet been able to find the right moment, LIRING/3 stated that he had a plan that might help. He would invite Garcia to have coffee on such a central street as San Juan de Latrán where there are street photographs and thus he could manage to get a picture for Rowton. Rowton quickly discouraged this explaining that it would be transparent to Garcia, and adding that it was not in fact necessary. He said that it would be sufficient if he could get a look at Garcia at the next meeting so that he could spot his photo without difficulty. LIRING/3 appeared relieved at this suggestion and assured Rowton that he would arrange his next meeting in such a way that Rowton could get a good look at Garcia.

5. Rowton then turned the spotlight on Enrique Morales, commenting that he did not believe the statement by Garcia that Morales was unwitting of FAR operations. LIRING/3 again protested but added quickly that he was prepared to do what Rowton felt necessary to check him out thoroughly. He stated that it had never occurred to him that Morales could be in touch with the Cubans, but again he did not exclude this. He then explained that his own relations with the Cubans had degenerated to a pleasant social contact with no operational content. He then said that Ramiro Abreu had telephoned him only the preceding day to invite him to an exhibition and that Abreu appeared quite cordial. Rowton then remarked that the Cubans were maliciously clever and were beyond doubt watching LIRING/3's movements carefully and attempting to determine his basic loyalty. LIRING/3 again protested that in fact his true loyalty was to Rowton himself and that he had never in any way given the Cubans and/or Garcia cause to suspect the closeness of his relationship with Rowton, nor had he any intention of doing so in the future.

6. He then stated that in all his dealings with Rowton he had acted in complete sincerity. He added that had concealed certain things from Rowton but had never fabricated anything. He then proceeded to "confess" a number of details that he had neglected to report to Rowton. First he stated that he had been blindfolded during his first trip to Guatemala (when he entered clandestinely in a series of vehicles). He explained that he did not have the courage to tell Rowton this, first because he felt ashamed and secondly because he felt Rowton might be disappointed in him for having undergone this indignity. Since he was blindfolded he really could not tell Rowton what cars and trucks he had been transported in or with whom he had traveled, and he was glad that Rowton had not asked him pointblank for these details.

7. Another confession LIRING/3 felt constrained to make was that during his "excursions" in Cuba arranged by the DSE on his last trip, he was aware that every effort was being made by the escorts to break him down physically for some reason not quite clear to him as yet. He stated that during the "excursions" he was not given food or water (although both were consumed by the escorts in his presence rather frequently) and he knew that they were waiting for him to ask for such necessities. He did not do so out of stubbornness and pride, just to show the DSE that he could "take it" when required. LIRING/3 again explained that a strong sense of shame had prevented him from relating this indignity to Rowton when he reported on the trip, and he confessed that he was still stinging from the humiliation and bore strong resentment toward the Cubans for it even against his better judgement.

8. LIRING/3's final "confession" was that his wife is somewhat disturbed over his close relationship with Rowton. LIRING/3 stressed that he has never disclosed to his wife the operational matters discussed by him and Rowton and that she understandably worries about him and has some serious doubts about what is going on. LIRING/3 insisted that he has no doubts about his wife's loyalty and devotion to him, but feels that he should have reported this matter to Rowton, since it did bear on security. He added that he had no intention of telling his wife anything in the future, as one obvious solution to the problem, but intended to stretch her confidence in him to the limit. He explained that it was for that reason that he had threatened to send her back to Cuba the preceding week after a quarrel over his having taken Alicia Scheverria and Carmen Carrasco out (on Rowton's urging). He added that after his threat she calmed down and apparently forgot about the issue.

9. LIRING/3 concluded his comments with a statement that one problem in the past had been that he was afraid to tell Rowton too many unpleasant things and felt that Rowton was so busy that he did not have time to listen to his problems. He added that he felt Rowton was the only person he could confide in but was inhibited from doing so from a sense of inferiority and from the realization that their meetings were limited and would not permit relaxed discussions. He promised to reveal to Rowton as much detail as Rowton had time for in the future and to present as much proof as possible of the reliability of the information he furnished.

10. Rowton suggested that they terminate the meeting that evening because of the relatively late hour and the fact that Morales was waiting for LIRING/3 to make final preparations for their trip early the following morning. He promised to continue the discussion, however, when LIRING/3 returned from San Cristóbal.

Subject: Wallace E. Rowton Meeting with LIRING/3 and wife.

1. On the evening of 20 April, 1967, Rowton received a message from his telephone answering service that LIRING/3's wife (true maiden name) had left a message that Rowton (alias) should call her as soon as possible. Rowton returned the call the following day and asked whether he could visit LIRING/3's wife that evening, preferably about 2030. LIRING/3's wife replied that she was anxious to talk with Rowton alone, but expected a friend to drop in that evening. Rowton suggested that he would then telephone at about 2030 prior to coming up to the apartment. LIRING/3's wife agreed that this would be best, to avoid running into her friend (woman).
2. When Rowton telephoned at about 2030 that evening (21 April, 1967) LIRING/3's wife informed him that LIRING/3 had unexpectedly returned home earlier that evening. She then put him on the phone and Rowton asked to meet with him the following morning at 1000.
3. At the meeting with Rowton at 1000 on 22 April, 1967, LIRING/3 reported that he had returned from his trip to Tuxla and San Cristóbal sooner than expected since he had accomplished his mission of introducing Enrique Morales Guerra to Enrique Martínez and showing him the house on the day of their arrival (19 April, 1967) and did not want to run up any more expenses than necessary. He put Morales on the plane to Guatemala City the next day and instructed him to wait in the Hotel Florida for a telephone call from him instructing him to contact Angelo Arvanitis as soon as the latter's arrival from Caracas was confirmed. In reply to Rowton's query LIRING/3 stated that he felt it was more economical for Morales to wait in Guatemala City than in San Cristóbal, since he had to show possession of $100.00 (US) upon entering Guatemala City and he could use this money to live on while waiting contact with Arvanitis. If he remained in San Cristóbal he would have to spend money there to live and would not have sufficient funds on entering Guatemala.
4. LIRING/3 then confessed that ever since the last meeting with Rowton (evening 19 April) he had felt extremely depressed and demoralized, not so much at the content of Rowton's accusations, as at the very idea of Rowton's dissatisfaction with his past performance and suspicion of his intentions. He stated that he felt he had disappointed Rowton in his production as far as the Cubans were concerned and found it difficult to admit that even his close friend Arnol Rodríguez had broke off communication with him. He added that upon leaving Rowton on the evening of 19 April, 1967, he had gone to the Cuban Embassy in the hope of finding Llamiro Abreu so that he could chat with him in an effort to find out what the Cubans were thinking of him. He explained that he intended to ask Abreu, out of courtesy, to call his wife to say goodbye, since she was still resentful of the treatment given her and would appreciate the gesture. LIRING/3 stated that he did not find Abreu in the Embassy and left immediately and went home.

5. LIRING/3 then, in a unrestrained emotional outburst, reassured Rowton that he had never acted in bad faith with Rowton and had done everything possible to carry out his instructions. He continued that Rowton was the only person he had enough respect for to take unlimited risks (hasta la muerte) and he did not know what might happen if Rowton continued to show lack of trust in him. He repeated that he would do anything to clear up Rowton's doubts about the lawyer Riojas, the birth certificate, and Garcia, promising again to notify Rowton in advance of the time and place of his next meeting with Garcia so that Rowton could surveil the meeting and identify Garcia. He added that he had absolutely no doubts about the reliability and conduct of Enrique Morales, and was certain that Morales would not make any contacts in Guatemala other than those purely business meetings Rowton had arranged.

6. Rowton then explained that LIRING/3's wife had telephoned him after his departure and expressed a desire to talk with him. LIRING/3 replied that he realized that she was very worried about his fits of depression and that was probably what she wanted to discuss with Rowton. He felt Rowton should see her even though he had returned and recommended that Rowton do so that afternoon between 1500 and 1900 when he expected to be away from home on a regular visit to his children (by his divorced wife). Rowton agreed and promised to meet with LIRING/3 again that evening at 2100 to discuss his conversation with his wife. LIRING/3 added that his wife had also been under some strain because of the notice they just received from Gobernación to the effect that her request for a visa for her father to visit them had been denied.

7. At about 1630 that same day Rowton visited LIRING/3's wife in her home and spent about two hours talking with her. She appeared in good health and relatively good spirits, greeting Rowton cordially and maintaining a calm exterior throughout the discussion. She told Rowton that after LIRING/3 had returned home from his last meeting with Rowton (evening 19 April) he was so visibly depressed that she did not want him to leave so early the following morning on the trip to San Cristóbal. She added that she knew something had happened between him and Rowton and for that reason wanted to talk with Rowton to be reassured that everything was alright. She then stated that Rowton could not possibly know to what extent LIRING/3 respected Rowton and what a break in their relationship could mean to LIRING/3 and, of course, to herself as his wife. She then confessed that she had many times been jealous of Rowton, feeling that her husband's deeper sentiments and affections were slowly being directed away from her toward Rowton. She stated that what made things much worse was that she knew literally nothing of what LIRING/3 was doing for Rowton and could not determine what was bothering him during his fits of depression. The only thing she knew was that LIRING/3 often felt that he was not doing enough concretely for Rowton's interest in his and financial support of his family.

8. Rowton reassured LIRING/3's wife that nothing serious had happened, and agreed that it would be unfair that she did not have at least a general idea of what was happening. He then explained that what he thought was bothering LIRING/3 more than anything at the moment was his current "isolation" from his Cuban friends, and it was possible that she was unwittingly partly responsible for this. LIRING/3's wife admitted that she could not stomach anything more than a formal greeting to them. She said that she had seen Cepeda on the street recently and kept walking since she could not bear to talk to him. She added that the last person she worked with in the Consulate, (Araceli Mastrapa) was pleasant but she knew that this woman was a member of the Communist party and her friendliness would always be superficial. She explained that shortly before she left the job at the Consulate, file cabinets, safes and desks were always locked, whereas before she had access to everything and practically ran the office for Abreu. In reply to Rowton's query, she stated that some of her former colleagues in the Consulate had visited her recently when she was sick, but she knew that their solicitude was forced and that they had come because they were told to do so.

9. Rowton then asked LIRING/3's wife why she felt so bitter toward the Cubans with whom she had formerly worked. She replied simply because they "threw her out on the street" with such rudeness and lack of consideration. She explained that her past life had generally been serene and that she had for better or worse been protected from the rude shocks of the world. For this reason the treatment given to her by the Consulate and the Ambassador was such a terrible shock to her (golpe). She then stated that Ramiro Abreu was the only person who showed any consideration for her and he unfortunately was away at the time of her dismissal. She commented that Curbelo was indifferent and Cepeda was impenetrable. The only other person who showed interest in her was the Mexican Rojas who telephoned the other day to invite her to an exhibit of some sort. She added that she refused to go since she had not gotten over the shock. She added that she realized her reaction was emotional, since she could not blame the consular employees for doing what in all probability they had been instructed to do from Havana. She agreed that, after all, she was not the only non-career person discharged at that time, and the action was not aimed at her in particular, but she still resented the rudeness of the whole action.

10. Rowton then pointed out that perhaps her attitude towards the consulate had repercussions in the case of LIRING/3. He reminded LIRING/3's wife that for the limited mentality (de niños) of the officials there/<sup>an</sup> angry Cuban, particularly a woman, was always dangerous. They were probably doubly fearful of what they might suffer if LIRING/3 criticized their conduct to his friends in Havana, particularly since they were not certain of the identity of these friends. At this point LIRING/3's wife interrupted Rowton stating that she recalled the Ambassador on one occasion asking her what LIRING/3 was doing at that time in Havana. Rowton continued that it was therefore very likely that they had done everything possible to discourage Arnol Rodriguez from continuing his close contact with LIRING/3 and had apparently succeeded. LIRING/3's wife then recalled that LIRING/3 had recently tried to contact Arnol by telephone but had been told that he was not in. She said that she did not believe that he was not in and felt Arnol was avoiding a confrontation with LIRING/3. She said the same applied to their other friend René Cchoa. She then exclaimed bitterly that when these people needed medicine or other supplies they found it easy to cable LIRING/3 and were home when he telephoned them and rushed around to obtain the supplies.

11. LIRING/3's wife then agreed that both she and LIRING/3 were virtually isolated from their former friends and contacts. Rowton suggested that one reason for this might be LIRING/3's wife's obvious resentment toward the local staff that she did not take pains to conceal. She therefore might be able to help LIRING/3 and Rowton if she could manage to swallow her pride and bury the hatchet. She assured Rowton that she was willing to do anything possible to help LIRING/3 in his work with Rowton. She then volunteered to get in touch with Abreu and attempt to see him before he left. She commented that she could logically bid him farewell and take the occasion to assure him that she was no longer bitter toward the Consulate. She added that she could also help their friend Rojas who had recently opened a cultural office and had invited her over to see it. This might prove to them that she has gotten over the shock and is ready to resume normal relations with them. Rowton agreed, stating that he thought this would help LIRING/3 to re-establish himself.

12. Rowton then put in a few discreet questions regarding LIRING/3's other friends, Enrique Morales, Carmen Carrasco and Alicia Echeverría. LIRING/3's wife stated that she hardly knew Morales and his wife, but they seemed to be decent people. She took off, however, on the other two women. She said she now felt she knew Carmen Carrasco fairly well and could listen to her tall tales about her marital problems without breaking down and crying with her, but she objected to the heavy drinking that appeared to be inevitable every time Carmen and Alicia Echeverría got together. She admitted that she disapproved of LIRING/3's involvement with persons of this type, because she was afraid of his getting into trouble without realizing it. She added quickly that she had not feelings of jealousy, but simply anxiety.

13/ Rowton then explained that he had asked LIRING/3 to develop superficial social contact with these women because of their access to useful information. Rowton continued that it occurred to him that she, LIRING/3's wife, was probably better qualified to handle these women than was LIRING/3 himself. She agreed and volunteered to take this load off LIRING/3's mind. She expressed relief to know that Rowton had not wanted LIRING/3 to become too deeply involved with persons of this kind.

14. Rowton, feeling it best not to mention the name of "Garcia" at this time, moved on to the problem of LIRING/3's wife's father. He said that he regretted that the visa had not come through, but after all it was probably best, since he could not imagine what the Embassy people (esos niños) might dream up about her father's activities in Mexico City and the purpose of his visit (coming as he was from New York). She agreed that it might make things worst for LIRING/3, although she felt sorry that she would not be able to see her father after so many years. Rowton then suggested the possibility of her making a discreet trip to Montreal to the Exposition so that she could meet her father there. He promised to discuss this with LIRING/3 and try to work out some plan to keep the cost to a minimum.

15. Later that evening, Rowton met again with LIRING/3 at the safehouse. He explained what had transpired that afternoon with LIRING/3's wife and stated that he felt it advisable that LIRING/3 cut in his wife to a limited extent and encourage her to redevelop cordial relations with the Consulate. LIRING/3 agreed to this, commenting that he had treated his wife rather roughly and perhaps ~~was~~ responsible for her illness and loss of weight. Rowton then suggested that in view of what they had determined, it would be best for LIRING/3 not to continue his efforts via telephone to recontact either Arnol Rodriguez or René Ochea, until his wife had had a chance to make peace with the Consulate. LIRING/3 agreed, commenting that he felt the work he was now doing with Garcia and FAR was more important and would eventually prick the curiosity of the Cubans to a point that they could no longer ignore him. He added that perhaps he had overdone his direct contacts with Arnol Rodriguez and placed him in an embarrassing position via-a-vis the DSE and the local Embassy. He added that he felt confident that once he had good commercial cover developed and continued his FAR contacts, he would have something concrete to show the Cubans and erase their suspicions. He concluded that he felt the Julian Lopez affair and more recently the Rico Galán letter had hurt him more than he could have imagined, in view of the mentality of the DSE types both here and in Havana. He added that he would eventually find out what was behind the whole thing, but in the meantime agreed that it was best to play a waiting game.

16. He agreed also that it would be better for his wife to meet her father in Montreal, commenting she could allege that her father was paying the transportation. LIRING/3, however, added that he did not want to spend any more money than absolutely necessary in view of the priority of the plastic flower project. He promised, however, to look into the excursion flights to determine the precise cost that would be involved.

Subject: Analysis of IIRBET Traffic Relating to LIRING/3
for the Period 12-19 April, 1967.

1. Rowton studied the traffic for the period indicated and found that LIRING/3 was again in regular communication with Enrique Morales Guerra. Much of the conversation confirms reports given to Rowton by LIRING/3 concerning the proposed trip to San Cristóbal and Guatemala City. Further information concerning the birth certificate of LIRING/3's half-brother, Sergio, is discussed with a relative of LIRING/3, but no mention is made of the lawyer, Rolando Riejas, who, according to LIRING/3's statements to Rowton, is supposed to have been procuring the document. An important confirmation in the traffic is the fact that LIRING/3 and his wife are virtually "isolated" from the local Cuban mission and that LIRING/3's wife HAS NO DESIRE to see the people from the Embassy or Consulate.
2. The traffic also confirms the visits reported to have been made by LIRING/3's wife to the hospital (Clinica San Lorenzo and 20th of November Hospital) and their contacts with sra. Carmen Carrasco and Alicia Echeverría.
3. There is one call to LIRING/3 from an unidentified man who may be "Garcia" ( 65-SAN-2.2) . LIRING/3 states that he will be meeting "that person" at 1700 (time set for meeting with Rowton) and arranges a meeting at 1830 that same evening (17/4/67) at the Literaria Cafe.
4. The following are Rowton's comments on specific portions of the traffic that appear to be of principal operational interest:

Relations with the Cubans: At the 1800 meeting with Rowton on 19/4/67 LIRING/3 told Rowton that Ramiro Abreu had telephoned him earlier that day to invite him to an exposition of some kind and to his farewell party. SAN-7 (9.0), however, reveals that the caller was the Mexican Rojas who invited LIRING/3 and his wife to the 6th Anniversary of the Playa Giron at the Teatro Ceyacán, where Abreu Gomez was scheduled to talk. Although LIRING/3's wife confirmed this conversation to Rowton on 22/4/67 in her conversation with him, LIRING/3 did not correct the deception. Rowton, in light of his conversation with LIRING/3's wife feels that LIRING/3 was attempting to give Rowton the impression that he is much closer to Ramiro Abreu than he is. The remainder of the intercept reveals that LIRING/3 and his wife "no longer have anything to do with the people" and that LIRING/3's wife "feels like vomiting when she sees them".

SAN-4 (7.2) reveals that LIRING/3 also deceived Rowton in his reported attempt to contact Arnol Rodriguez by telephone on 19/4/67. At the meeting on that day at 1800, LIRING/3 stated that he had had an argument with his wife and threatened to send her back to Cuba. In order to make good his threat he telephoned Arnol Rodriguez at his home in Havana. He was, however, told by the operator that Arnol was not home but his wife Ruby could talk to him. LIRING/3 concluded that he refused to talk with Ruby and asked the operator to try again at 2100. SAN-4(7.2) reveals that LIRING/3 placed a call to René Ochoa, his Honduran friend in Havana, at number 22-16-51, and was told by the operator that sr. Ochoa was not at home but was expected at 2100. He was asked whether he wanted to talk to Ochoa's wife, Rati, but he refused. Confirmation of the fight between LIRING/3 and his wife can be found in SAN-5(2.0) in which a friend Paul, Inu, who was visiting them telephoned Esperanza and tells her that LIRING/3 and his wife are quarreling, and that LIRING/3 wants to send her back to Cuba (but probably joking).

This obvious deception pattern on part of LIRING/3 indicates that he is afraid to reveal to Rowton the virtual ostracism imposed on them by the Cubans. LIRING/3's wife was more frank in her talk with Rowton on 22/4/67, stating that once when LIRING/3 attempted to reach Arnol Rodriguez by phone he was told that Arnol was not at home. LIRING/3's wife commented that she did not believe this and felt that Arnol was avoiding contact.

Conversations with Enrique Morales Guerra:

Several portions reveal that Morales owes money to a bank and is trying to arrange something (possibly to pay off the debt). In reading the traffic Rowton's suspicions that LIRING/3 has known Morales much longer than he pretends are strengthened, despite the statement by LIRING/3's wife to Rowton on 22/4/67 that she did not know the Morales family well or for long. On 19/4/67, according to SAN-7(8.0), Morales asks LIRING/3 for the address of his present residence (Atoyac) where he was to go with his wife for lunch. This indicates that Morales is not familiar with the address and may not have visited the apartment before.

24 April, 1967

Subject: Wallace B. Rowton Meeting with LIRING/3.

1. Rowton met with LIRING/3 at the safehouse at 1800 on 24 April, 1967. LIRING/3 reported that he had seen his friend Sergio Gonzalez Marin in the Secretariat of Commerce and Industry regarding the license for the San Cristóbal factory. He related that Sergio Gonzalez had introduced him to the president of the government committee for plastics and that the latter promised him all the assistance he could provide. He assured LIRING/3 that the flowers could be imported in pieces and assembled in San Cristóbal on condition that they would be exported, but that it would be necessary to post a bond with the Secretariat in the amount of the purchase price of the flowers. This bond would be released as soon as assurances were given that the flowers were finally exported. In addition samples of the items imported would have to be deposited with the Secretariat so that the approximate evaluation could be ascertained.
2. LIRING/3 stated that he planned to telephone Enrique Morales Guerra in Guatemala City (at the hotel Florida) to give him the latest instructions. Rowton told LIRING/3 that unfortunately there was no confirmation that Angelo Arvanitis had arrived in Guatemala from Caracas and that therefore Morales would have to stand by until news was received. Rowton asked LIRING/s not to <sup>contact</sup> ~~introduce~~ Morales to contact Mr. Batsakis (with whom LIRING/3 had talked during his last trip) since this might complicate things, Arvanitis being the person with whom Stylianos Frevolis had excellent relations and who could give the proper instructions.
3. LIRING/3 then reported jubilantly that Rowton's talk with his wife had miraculous effects. He related that when he returned home after seeing Rowton on the evening of 22 April, 1967, his wife surprised him by announcing that she had had a very friendly chat with Mamiro Abreu (on the telephone) and that he latter had promised to come over to see her the following morning at about 1000. LIRING/3 added that since he felt it more discreet on his part, he left the house shortly before 1000 so that his wife and Abreu could talk in private. He continued that when he returned home at about 1200 on 23 April, he wife was ~~or~~ not in. At about 1400 she returned to the house with Abreu and they announced that they had been out for lunch. Abreu appeared in excellent spirits and very cordial to LIRING/3, stating that he wished to have a chat with him within the next few days, since he was leaving for Havana on 28 April, 1967. He promised to telephone LIRING/3 the following day for a date. LIRING/3 added that Abreu kept his promise and called that morning (24 April) but he, LIRING/3, stalled in setting a time for the meeting since he realized that he had to telephone Enrique Morales that evening and had a date with Rowton at 1800 with whom in any case he wanted to discuss the line he should take with Abreu.

4. LIRING/3 reported that his wife's chat with Abreu in a nearby restaurant was quite cordial. She explained to Abreu that she had been quite upset at the manner in which she was fired from the Consulate but had gotten over everything by now and didn't want to hold it against anyone, especially him. Abreu explained that the firing was not aimed at her in particular, but was in compliance with a general order from Havana to the effect that all employees not hired in Havana by MINREX were to be dismissed. He pointed out that as LIRING/3's wife knew, the other people, such as the cook as household help, had also been dismissed. He said that he knew about the order and discussed it with his colleagues even before he went to Havana, (on TDY) but did not have the courage to fire her in the light of her loyalty and conscientiousness. In reply to LIRING/3's wife's queries, Abreu stated flatly that her firing had nothing to do with her husband and did not in any way indicate lack of trust of the part of the Consulate. He added that Araceli had been sent over from Havana to take over the work she had been doing and there was no alternative. Abreu added that when LIRING/3's wife telephoned him he assumed that she wanted a visa to return on a visit to Cuba and that he had come prepared to give her a visa at once. Abreu continued that he hoped LIRING/3's wife would resume her visits to the Consulate and suggested that she and LIRING/3 call on Curbelo who was having his personal troubles (he was alone and not happy over certain domestic problems, stemming mainly from the unfortunate fact that his wife could have had any children).

5. Rowton replied that he was happy to learn that LIRING/3's wife had acted so promptly and with such effectiveness. He suggested that when LIRING/3 met with Abreu, he should inform him of the efforts he is making with regard to the plastic flower business (with no reference to Garcia and FAR) which was potentially lucrative, and to indicate to Abreu that he was developing excellent contacts such as Carmen Carrasco and Alicia Rcheverria who have good access to gossip and information of interest to Cuba (this Rowton felt might take the heat off in the Lopez and Rico Galán case). Rowton stressed that one difficulty in the past had been that since LIRING/3 had been so cozy with the Cubans, particularly the local staff, they naturally speculated on what he was doing and probably developed groundless suspicion on his activities. Telling Abreu what he was doing in setting up the plastic factory with Greek contacts in Mexico City and Guatemala would possibly permit Abreu to turn in a favorable report in his debriefing in Habana. *

6. LIRING/3 then stated that he had been racking his brain thinking of other ways he would be more useful to Rowton. He explained that recently it had occurred to him that his previous acquaintance with Gonzalez, the editor of Sucesos, might be useful, provided he could develop him more thoroughly. He added that Gonzalez, after all, had excellent contacts with all Central and South American guerrilla movements, and would be an entrée some day if this was needed. Rowton agreed but advised caution, since he was a well-known newspaperman and, as such, would always have only limited access to very sensitive quarters. Another thing LIRING/3 stated he had thought of was for himself to spend some time in the mountains in Guatemala so that he could learn first-hand what was going on. Rowton replied that this was worth thinking about but would require considerable preparation, particularly as far as communications went, since he did not want to be out of touch with LIRING/3 for any length of time. Another interesting item that had come to his attention by chance was a boyfriend of Carmen Carrasco who she stated had traveled extensively in Cuba and Central America. LIRING/3 stated that the other day Carmen had telephoned this person from his home to ask him to pick her up there and that shortly afterward the person had appeared and LIRING/3 and his wife were able to meet him. He promised to report further on this person in the hope that he might be of interest to Rowton.

7. With regard to the false birth certificate LIRING/3 stated that inasmuch as the one produced at the Registro Civil was for a person born in 1916, he had been advised by his brother (half-brother) that it would be better to obtain a false Acta Notarial (affidavit) in a phony name to take the place of the birth certificate. LIRING/3 stated that he hoped to have this document in a few days to show to Rowton.

8. In view of the proposed meeting with Abreu the following day, Rowton asked LIRING/3 to net him again at 1000 on 25 April, 1967, so that he could reported promptly the results of the meeting.

9. LIRING/3 concluded with a statement that he hoped to have a call from Garcia any day and regretted that he could not contact him in any way,

1. Forwarded herewith as Attachment 1 are the following reports written by Wallace B. ROWTON:
A. Report dated 7 April 1967 describes the trip which L-3 made to Northern Mexico to explore the possibility of obtaining a US customer for L-3's planned plastic flower business. All L-3 needed was a letter from a potential US customer, real or fictitious to obtain a license for his business from the Mexican secretariat of commerce and industry. For a $20.00 fee a friend of L-3's half brother registered a firm in Del Rio, Texas. This firm would, on paper at least, import L-3's flowers into the United States. B. The same report goes on to describe how, through a Mexican lawyer, Rolando RUIOJAS, in Nuevo Laredo "valid" birth certificates can be purchased with which Mexican passports can be obtained. L-3 who wants another passport to travel to Central America (his own bears PBRUMEN entry and exit stamps) immediately "ordered" a birth certificate.

C. Report dated 8 April gives more details on the men L-3 was introduced to by his half-brother, who certainly seems to know his way around the U.S. Mexican border area. Station had no traces on Sergio ~~K~~ARCHE or Eloy ~~G~~ONZALEZ.

D. Report dated 12 April covers meetings with "GARCIA" of the FAR and Enrique ~~M~~MORALES Guerra recently introduced to L-3 by GARCIA to help him with the plastic flower business. The Station did not have sufficient advance notice to have GARCIA and MORALES surveilled. In connection with paragraph 5 of that report dealing with Alicia ECHEVARRIA, ROWTON has been trying to have L-3 meet Alicia to use her with the PBRUMENers as a "source" for some items of information passed L-3 by ROWTON. Alicia, who drinks like a fish and is frequently under the weather, seems to have a difficult time remembering what she tells people.

E. Report dated 13 April covers meetings with Alicia ECHEVARRIA, GARCIA and Jacobo ~~R~~ODRIGUEZ Padilla. RODRIGUEZ's comments on the relations between the FAR and the Yon Sosa guerrilla groups in Guatemala were cabled separately. The Station is examining the desirability of having L-3 obtain a birth certificate for RODRIGUEZ (via the lawyer in Nuevo Laredo) with which the latter could obtain a Mexican passport.

F. The same report contains a detailed description of "GARCIA" and a sketch of him drawn by L-3. The Station is currently exploring via LIREBEL the possibility that "GARCIA" may be identical with fnu CASASOLA, known to LIREBEL as the new PGT representative in Mexico City.

2. Forwarded as Attachment Two, under separate cover, is the text of the letter (later typed on "Florix Co." letterhead) which L-3 intends to present to the Mexican authorities to obtain a license for his plastic flower business.

3. Headquarters traces on Rolando RIOJAS, Sergio ARCHE and Eloy GONZALEZ would be appreciated. Station traces were negative. This Station would also appreciate knowing Headquarter's interest in the Mexican birth certificate - passport mill discovered by LIRING-3.

Subject: Wallace B. Rowton Meeting with LIRING/3.

1. Rowton met with LIRING/3 at 0900 on 7 April, 1967, to debrief him on his trip to northern Mexico to find an outlet for the plastic flowers to be purchased from Metaloplástica de Guatemala. LIRING/3 had called Rowton's telephone answering service both from Nuevo Laredo and from his home shortly after his return to Mexico on 6 April, 1967. (As usual LIRING/3 used the assumed name Juarez in leaving the message).
2. LIRING/3 stated that he had left Mexico City by train on the evening of 31 March, 1967, and arrived in Saltillo the following day. He took a bus from there to his destination, Sabinas, and met his half-brother at his home. He reviewed with his half-brother the problem of obtaining a license from the Secretariat of Commerce and Industry as outlined to him by his friend Sergio Gonzalez Marin. His half-brother suggested that they both contact a close friend of his, a certain Sergio Arche, in Villa Acuña, who, he explained, worked as an electrical engineer in the local radio station and knew all the ins and outs of trade, both legal and illegal, with the U.S. He then drove LIRING/3 to Villa Acuña and they continued their discussions in the presence of Arche. The latter finally recommended that he set up a fictitious company at once in Del Rio, Texas, that could issue a letter guaranteeing purchase of the complete production of the factory in San Cristóbal (Plastiflor de San Cristóbal) to satisfy the requirements of the Secretariat of Commerce and Industry. He made it clear to LIRING/3 that he, with the help of LIRING/3's half-brother, would really sell the flowers through legitimate companies in both del Rio and Houston, Texas, but this would take time and some bargaining. According to LIRING/3 all three agreed to the suggestion of Arche and the latter proceeded immediately to Del Rio to carry out his plan. He returned the following day and reported that he had without difficulty registered the fictitious company, baptized "Flóriex Co., in Del Rio by paying a small ($20.00) fee, and at the same time obtained a Post Office Box (739) in the same city as the mailing address. LIRING/3 then had letterhead paper printed in Acuña to make the new "company" look more impressive and to provide for the letter for the Secretariat of Commerce.
3. LIRING/3 then showed Rowton the letterhead paper and a letter to himself from the Floriex Company expressing interest in the flowers and promising to purchase the entire production "for a period of 18teen months". The letter was signed, Max Arche, Floriex Co. Sales Manager. Rowton pointed out to LIRING/3 that the letter was couched in such poor English that it could never pass as an authentic document of any kind. LIRING/3 replied that he realized this and hoped that Rowton would rewrite the letter, since he trusted that Rowton's command of English was better than Arche's, and for this purpose had brought along with him a supply of letterhead paper. He added that he expected to receive via Arche any future enquiries concerning the Floriex Co. and would be able to reply after consultation with Rowton. Attached is a copy of the final Floriex letter prepared by Rowton. LIRING/3 will present this letter to his friend Sergio Gonzalez Marin in order to proceed with the formalities of the license.

4. LIRING/3 then reported that he discussed with his brother another problem that had to be solved - the obtaining of a false passport which he explained he might need for travel in Central America and Cuba. LIRING/3 inserted here parenthetically that both his half-brother and Sergio Arche were progressives and would not object to any insinuation that his travel had political motives.) His half-brother, whom LIRING/3 described as a "man of action", immediately suggested that they consult a lawyer friend of his in Nuevo Laredo who he was sure could handle such a problem. They then both drove in LIRING/3's half-brother's car to Nuevo Laredo and met with the lawyer, sr. Rolando Riojas, who after some discussion stated that he could provide LIRING/3 with a "valid" birth certificate of a Mexican born in northern Mexico, on the basis of which LIRING/3 could obtain a military service card and passport in Mexico City. He added that the "fee" would unfortunately be 2,000 pesos, since he would have to pay off a number of persons in the vital statistics record office. Since LIRING/3 did not have sufficient money with him, his ~~brother~~ half-brother loaned him 1,500 pesos on the spot. LIRING/3 paid Riojas and obtained a hand-written receipt. (On his return to Mexico, LIRING/3 cable the 1,500 pesos he had borrowed to his half-brother).

5. LIRING/3 also reported that his half-brother, on the occasion of their being in Nuevo Laredo, introduced him to another friend, Eloy Gonzalez, a Mexican Customs Officer who gave LIRING/3 some useful tips in bypassing Mexican regulations. He suggested that LIRING/3 arranged to have bills of lading and invoices made out in an amount less than $80.00 so that the shipment of flowers (from Guatemala City to San Cristóbal) would fall in to the "pequeña importación" category as per Código Aduanal, Capítulo 3907. Eloy Gonzalez volunteered to assist LIRING/3 in the handling of the shipments in any way he could, even though he was not stationed on the Guatemalan border.

6. LIRING/3 added that he hopes to have the false birth certificate mailed to him by Rolando Riojas within the next few days so that he can apply for the passport. LIRING/3 stated that he planned to brief Garcia fully on all these developments, particularly the passport operation, since he was certain that Garcia would be interested and might have other use for such contacts.

7. LIRING/3 finally reported that he returned to Mexico City by air on 6 April, 1967, from Monterrey. He commented that he felt the trip had been very productive, not only in terms of the plastic flower business, but also in developing such useful contacts as Sergio Arche, Rolando Riojas and Eloy Gonzalez. He added that immediately on his return home he telephoned Enrique Morales and met with him briefly on the evening of 6 April, 1967. He asked Morales to pass a message to their mutual friend Garcia that he had returned and would like to see him soonest. LIRING/3 concluded the meeting by stating that he hoped he have a telephone call from Garcia within the next few days so that he could arrange a meeting.

8. Rowton on his part informed LIRING/3 that he had learned that Angelos Arvanitis, the owner of Metaloplástica de Guatemala, would be in Guatemala City on 21 April, 1967, and that LIRING/3 could make plans to have Morales travel to Guatemala after that date so that he could be trained under the personal supervision of Mr. Arvanitis. Rowton suggested that in the meantime Morales might visit San Cristóbal so that he could become familiar with the area and the new factory. LIRING/3 agreed and promised to check this out with Garcia and Morales at his next meeting.

Subject: Meeting with LIRING/3.

1. Rowton met with LIRING/3 at 1800 on 8 April, 1967 so that he could pick up the letterhead paper of the new Floriex Co. and revise the text of the letter to be used in connection with LIRING/3's application for a license in the Secretariat of Commerce. LIRING/3 also brought along, as he had promised, the addresses of his newly developed contacts in the north. They are as follows:

- 1) sr. Sergio Arche
Calle Fife Suarez y Las Vacas
Villa Acuña, Coah.
- 2) sr. Eloy González
Calle Peru 1718
Nuevo Laredo, Tams.

2. LIRING/3 explained that Arche, who appears as Max Archie, Sales Manager of the notional company, Floriex, of Del Rio, Texas, is the maintenance engineer of the Villa Acuña radio station XERE, and can be reached on telephone number 182 in that city. Eloy González is a customs agent, stationed in Nuevo Laredo, and has home telephone 23588, Nuevo Laredo. At Rowton's suggestion LIRING/3 will ask González for a letter of introduction to a customs agent on the Guatemalan border so that he can use this contact in expediting the importation of the plastic flowers.

3. At the same meeting LIRING/3 reported that Garcia had telephoned him in response to his message passed through Morales. He spent some two hours with Garcia at the Tacubaya apartment in a very cordial conversation. LIRING/3 commented that Garcia drank several bottles of beer and appeared more relaxed than he had ever been in his company. Garcia was jubilant over the report LIRING/3 gave him of his success in the north through his half-brother, particularly in contacting the lawyer to obtain a false passport. When LIRING/3 mentioned that he might be renting another (safehouse) studio, Garcia commented favorably on the one he now had and said he did not see any reason to change, at least for the present. At the end of the meeting Garcia suggested that they go out on the town that same evening in the company of Enrique Morales, so that LIRING/3 would have a chance to know him better. LIRING/3 stated that he would be meeting Garcia at 2200 again that same evening and asked Rowton where he might take him and Morales. Rowton replied (in the hope of surveillance) that they might visit the Casa Blanca night club on San Juan Iatrán.

Subject: Rowton Meeting with LIRING/3.

1. Rowton met with LIRING/3 at 1800 on 10 April, 1967, for about one hour. He passed to LIRING/3 the revised Floriex Co. letter which LIRING/3 stated he intended to present to the Secretariat of Commerce and Industry via his friend Sergio Gonzalez Marin that same day. LIRING/3 reported that he had received a telegram from the Nuevo Laredo lawyer Rolando Riojas instructing him to present himself to the Registro Civil office to a certain official identified by Riojas only by number. LIRING/3 explained that he expected to receive his false birth certificate from this person so that he could apply for a military service card and eventually a passport. He did not as yet know what name would be on the birth certificate, but recalled Riojas commenting that many persons in Mexico registered twice, often as a result of remarriage of their parents or recognition of an illegitimate child. LIRING/3 assumed that Riojas would use the name of a person who had registered twice and no longer was using his original name.
2. LIRING/3 also reported that he had gone out Saturday evening (9 April, 1967) from about 2200 until after midnight with Garcia and Enrique Morales Guerra to the restaurant-bar Moran near the intersection of Chapultepec and Insurgentes. He commented that the place had been recommended by Morales as more pleasant than the Casa Blanca club that he had mentioned. LIRING/3 stated that Garcia paid the entire bill. The conversation consisted wholly of small talk, since Garcia had previously asked LIRING/3 to refrain from political discussions and operational matters.
3. Rowton then asked LIRING/3 whether Garcia had made any move to reimburse him for the medicine and supplies already delivered. LIRING/3 replied that he was certain the matter would be taken care of by Garcia, and explained that at the time of delivery Garcia had asked him how he wanted to liquidate the obligation - in cash or the spot or as part of a larger deal later. LIRING/3 confessed that he indicated to Garcia that it could be settled later. Rowton objected to this, stating that this matter should be attended to at once and that LIRING/3 should explain to Garcia that he needed the money in connection with setting up the factory in San Cristóbal. LIRING/3 replied that he would do so at the next meeting.

with Garcia. He added, somewhat embarrassed, that unfortunately he would not be able to see Garcia for another two weeks or so, since the latter had told him that he had to leave again for another trip. LIRING/3 said that Garcia did not indicate where he would be going this time and he felt it would be indiscreet to ask him.

4. LIRING/3 also reported that he had discussed in Garcia's presence plans for Morales to accompany him to San Cristóbal on or about 20 April, so that he could show Morales the house and introduce him to Enrique Martínez. Arrangements would also be made for the rental of a station-wagon or small pick-up truck which Morales would drive to Guatemala City and return with the first load of plastic flowers. LIRING/3 stated that of course Morales would not proceed to Guatemala until he, LIRING/3, had instructed him to do so after having checked with Rowton to be sure that Angelo Arvanitis, the owner of the Metalonástica de Guatemala, was in Guatemala and had received word from Stylianos Tzevolis. LIRING/3 reassured Rowton that he himself had no intention of revisiting Guatemala. He added that if necessary he could see the FAR people in San Cristóbal or Comitán as arranged during his last trip.

5. LIRING/3 promised to continue to develop his contact with Alicia Echevarría, particularly to determine the address of her factory. He said that he could telephone 25-85-82 and ask for the address without difficulty. Rowton explained that he was stressing this contact not so much for the possible information LIRING/3 could elicit from Alicia as in the hope of developing an logical credible source to which he could attribute information passed to him by Rowton (which Rowton could pick up rather effortlessly from his contacts in the government). LIRING/3 said that he understood the need for this, particularly in light of the Julian López case, and would do the best he could to keep in touch with Alicia Echevarría.

6. LIRING/3 also reported that he had had a friendly chat with Hugo, the assistant of Sergio Martínez, the Commercial Attaché of the Cuban Embassy, and mentioned his trip up north and his excellent contact with Sergio Arche, describing him as a wheeler-dealer who might be able to help the commercial office in obtaining products. He offered to accompany Hugo on a trip up north in the event either Hugo or Martínez felt it would be useful for them to know Arche or LIRING/3's half-brother.

Wallace B. Rowton

13 April, 1967

Subject: Rowton Meeting with LIRING/3.

1. Rowton met with LIRING/3 at the safehouse from 1800 until 1900 on 13 April, 1967. LIRING/3 jubilantly reported that he had finally managed to have a chat with Alicia Echevarría, niece of the Secretary of Gobernación. He explained that he took Alicia and their mutual friend Carmen Molina de Carrasco out for 3-4 hours on 11 April, 1967, to the Globos nightclub, where he was able to talk privately with Alicia while dancing. LIRING/3 stated to Rowton that when he mentioned to Alicia Echevarría that he sympathized a great deal with the Guatemalans she responded very favorably by saying that she too felt sympathy for the cause, and had done as much as she could to help while her husband was alive.
2. Later in the conversation Alicia Echevarría, commenting on her uncle, Luis, stated that he was indeed quite "progressive" but had to put on a certain conservative front because of his important job in the government. She added that he could and would help in "cause" whenever he could do so discreetly. When LIRING/3 complained that to date he had been unable to talk privately with her, Alicia Echevarría invited him to her home for a drink on the afternoon of 15 April, 1967, so that they could continue their chat alone.
3. LIRING/3 reported at the same meeting that his Guatemalan friend Jacobo had called unannounced at his home at about 1930 on 10 April, 1967, in the company of his young son (aged about thirteen). Jacobo was distraught and explained that he had just learned that a relative of his by the name of Graega had been killed by the Guatemalan police in Guatemala City. He said that Graega had been stopped one recent afternoon for a routine check and had had to make a run for it. He was however cornered and shot to death by the police (or army patrol). Jacobo commented that this, coupled with the increased security measures being taken by the Mexican police following an agreement with the Guatemalan President during his last visit, had made him very uncomfortable and jumpy. He stated that he felt the need of some some of legal documents for his residence in Mexico more than ever and had come to LIRING/3 to appeal for help. LIRING/3 replied that he would have to think the matter over for a while to find the best solution. He promised to do all he could to obtain false papers for Jacobo.
4. LIRING/3 then reported that he took the occasion to discuss the general situation in Guatemala with Jacobo. The latter stated that he had learned that there was an accord between FAR and the Yon Josa group, but it was in his opinion a shaky alliance. He stated that the communist party of Guatemala had been very reluctant to make any sort of agreement and that Bernardo Alvarado had strenuously opposed the accord and was currently attempting to "nullify" it. Jacobo added that Yon Sosa disliked Alvarado for personal as well as political reasons and Cesar Montes more or less agreed with him but went along with Alvarado generally for expediency. LIRING/3 repeated that his friend Jacobo was a former classmate of Montes and appeared to admire him a great deal. Jacobo seemed quite hostile to Bernardo Alvarado and much more sympathetic toward Yon Sosa.

5. After reporting this LIRING/3 agreed that this discussion with Jacobo concerning Alvarado and Yon Sosa would provide an excellent basis for discussions in the future with Garcia on the same subject. He could, if asked, truthfully attribute any information he had to his friend Jacobo.

6. At Rowton's request, on the pretext that he might have access to a rogues' gallery of Guatemalans in Mexico being watched by Gobernación, LIRING/3 furnished the following physical characteristics on Garcia:

Apparent age:	35 yrs
Height:	1.63 m
Weight:	60-62 kgs
Hair:	black, combed neatly back
Other marks:	Straight nose, wears glasses, dresses well in conservative colors, white shirt, tie, no rings or other jewelry.

7. LIRING/3, also at Rowton's request, furnished the attached sketch with notes to facilitate identification.

8. On the personal side LIRING/3 said that he had had a spat with his wife on account of his date with Alicia Echevarría and Carmen Molina on Monday evening. He became annoyed with her and asked whether she wanted to go back to Cuba. When she replied in the affirmative, he immediately placed a telephone call to Arnol Rodríguez to ask for a visa. LIRING/3, commenting that he did not think his wife was serious, but just suffering from a fit of jealousy, said that fortunately Arnol Rodríguez was not at home. He added that he intended to put the call through later that evening (13 April) in any case not only to shake up his wife a bit but also to use the occasion to exchange a few words with Arnol and ask him whether he had received his note sent through Ismail Schemondia.

9. At the same meeting LIRING/3 reported that he had seen his friend Sergio Gonzalez Marin of the Secretariat of Commerce and Industry and presented to him the letter from the "Floriex Co. of Del Rio, Texas. LIRING/3 continued that he explained quite frankly to Sergio his plan, suggested by Sergio Arche, to reduce the cost of importation of the plastic flowers by falsifying the invoices (to declare the value $80.00 or less) so that the shipment could be imported from Guatemala with a "boleta de puente". According to LIRING/3, Sergio Gonzalez Marin advised LIRING/3 against this, explaining that even with a boleta de puente he would have to pay a 100% import tax, when actually he was not importing the flowers, but simply assembling them in San Cristóbal for immediate export to Texas. Sergio added that with the letter from the Floriex Co. LIRING/3 had proof of his intention to export the entire production and there was no reason why the proper license could not be obtained in about fifteen days. He recommended that LIRING/3 hold off the first shipment long enough for him to push through the final application.

10. LIRING/3 then, in view of this, suggested that he instruct Enrique Morales to be prepared to visit San Cristóbal with him on 20 April, 1967, so that he could introduce him around. He would then have Morales wait the final word from Rowton which he, LIRING/3, would get from Rowton by telephone, before proceeding to Guatemala City. Morales would remain in Guatemala City from about 25 to 29 April receiving instruction on the assembling of the flowers and make arrangements for the first shipment, which would, of course, await the issuance of the license in Mexico City. Rowton agreed that this would be acceptable, since he expected Angelo Arvanitis to arrive in Guatemala City from Caracas on 21 April. LIRING/3 added that he had not made any long-term commitment to Enrique Morales, and felt that he would accept temporary compensation in the neighborhood of 1,000 pesos per month, since he understood that the business was just getting off the ground and could not afford to pay more than the minimum salary.

Mexico 6, D.F.

Dear Mr. Jurado:

We received your plastic flower display last week and are pleased to inform you that we find the flowers to be of excellent quality and of potential sales value in our ~~MARK~~ area. The price listings you furnished are also satisfactory to us and will permit us to pay the required U.S. import taxes.

Since our sales outlets are rather extensive we can assure you that we shall be in a position to purchase your entire production for the next twelve months. In the event that your production increases above the figures you have already given us, we request that you advise us prior to negotiating with any other U.S. importer.

We trust that normal credit terms and letters of credit will be acceptable to you.

Please advise soonest the date of the first shipment of the flowers so that we can proceed with customs clearance in the U.S.

Sincerely yours,

Max Archie

Monthly Report of Developments in LIRING/3 Operation.

1. During the month of March, 1967, <sup>7K 201-798301</sup> LIRING/3 was placed under considerable strain by the illness of his wife and the inconsistent diagnoses ranging from leukemia to some sort of psychosomatic disorder. In order to clarify her medical situation as rapidly as possible, LIRING/3, with Rowton's encouragement, arranged to send his wife to a private clinic, recommended by his friend Juan Carrasco, rather than continue further testing at the State Hospital. In the meantime LIRING/3 renewed contact with the FAR representative, Garcia, and continued to develop the plastic flower business which is destined to provide commercial cover for the proposed smuggling of arms from Texas to Guatemala City. At one of the meetings with Garcia LIRING/3 was able finally to deliver the refrigerated medicine that Rowton had provided him with the preceding month.

2. Developments with Respect to Cuba:

At Rowton's suggestion LIRING/3 continued his efforts to re-establish cordial relations with the local Cuban Mission. He talked on several occasions with his friend Ismail Suarez de la Paz and aired his caagrin at the aloofness of the new Embassy employees. Ismail Suarez ( aka Echemendia) sympathized with him and urged LIRING/3 to be patient with the bureaucratic mentality of the staff, as he himself had to be in his own work. Suarez apparently, however, put in a good word for LIRING/3, inasmuch as on 18 March three members of the Consular staff, including the wife of Cepera, visited LIRING/3's wife at their home during her convalescence, and treated both LIRING/3 and his wife very cordially. Cepeda also presented LIRING/3 with a box of excellent Havana cigars, which he said had just arrived. The departure of Ismail Suarez de la Paz also presented LIRING/3 with an opportunity to send another personal note to their mutual friend, Arnol Rodriguez, complaining discreetly of the lack of correspondence. LIRING/3 told Rowton that he felt certain that Ismail Suarez would speak highly of him to Arnol and explain the difficulties of working outside with the local Mission. During the same period LIRING/3 was able to elicit advice and guidance from Garcia regarding his relationship with the Cubans as far as his work for FAR was concerned. Garcia stated again that FAR had now established satisfactory lines directly to the Soviet Union and that LIRING/3 should continue to be cordial to the Cubans but to realize that they were witting of FAR activities and plans only up to "a certain point". He encouraged LIRING/3 to visit Havana as regularly as feasible and to use his influence with high level Cubans to help unify the Guatemalan revolution.

3. Developments with Respect to Guatemala:

LIRING/3 met with the FAR representative "Garcia" on 26 and 28 March, following the latter's return from his brief trip to the Soviet Union. Garcia commented to LIRING/3 that his trip had been successful and that he had arranged "channels" for future funding of FAR from the Soviets. Garcia urged a certain amount of caution with regard to the Cubans and complained that the Guatemalan exiles in Cuba had fallen under the control of the Cuban mentality and could not be counted on for total support. Garcia accepted delivery of the refrigerated medicines at the 28 March meeting and promised to reimburse LIRING/3 for the cost of the supplies he had obtained. Garcia also expressed satisfaction at the progress being made by LIRING/3 in setting up the plastic flower business. He recommended and arranged an introduction to a trusted Mexican who could assume responsibility for the technical management of the San Cristóbal factory and relieve LIRING/3 of the administrative burdens involved.

Has he?

4. Cover Aspects of LIRING/3's Operation:

Following his meeting in Comitán with Garcia and two other FAR representatives on 3 March (when LIRING/3 delivered the unrefrigerated medicine and radio tubes and the gift case of Metaxas brandy), LIRING/3 arranged through a friend employed in the Internal Revenue Office of San Cristóbal to rent a suitable house that will eventually serve as the plastic flower factory, assembling the components manufactured in Guatemala City and transported by truck to Mexico. LIRING/3's Mexican friend has volunteered to assist LIRING/3 in setting up the company and factory without compensation on the basis of his previous close friendship. Through Garcia LIRING/3 met and recruited the Mexican, 35-year-old Enrique Morales Guerra, who will be sent by LIRING/3 to Guatemala City in the near future to learn the technical details of assembling the flowers and accompany the first shipment to San Cristóbal. In the meantime LIRING/3 has been in close touch with his half-brother, a representative of the Carlo Erba Laboratories (Veterinarian Medicines) in northern Mexico, who is attempting to find a buyer in San Antonio, Texas, for the entire production of the factory. At his suggestion, LIRING/3 traveled to his home in Sabinas, Coah., on 31 March so that he could show prospective clients in Texas samples of the flowers and return with a signed contract that would be acceptable to the Mexican Secretariat of Commerce. Once this is procured LIRING/3 will be in a position to commence direct dealings with the Metaloplastica de Guatemala for the purchase of the first shipment. LIRING/7, if required, will request his friends in Guatemala to extend 60-90 day credit to the new factory.

3. Other Aspects of the Operation:

Attempts were stepped up during the month ~~xx~~ by the Station to ascertain the identity of Garcia and to determine as far as is feasible the credibility of LIRING/3's reporting. An abortive attempt to surveill~~xx~~ the LIRING/3 - Garcia meeting on both 26 and 28 March was made, but on each occasion the team was unable to find either person involved. Another attempt will be made at the next LIRING/3 meeting with Garcia, providing Rowton can again elicit the time and place of the meeting. During the absence of LIRING/3 and his wife on the evening of 31 March, the Station successful place a transmitter in the residence of LIRING/3 which can be monitored from an adjacent apartment LP. This with proper monitoring should provide useful control data to further evaluate LIRING/3 and his relationship with his family and friends.

SAN CRISTÓBAL DE LAS CASAS, CHIAPAS, MARZO 23 DE 1961.

APRECIABLE SEÑOR JIRADOS:

ESPERO, A DIOS GRACIAS QUE TANTO USTED COMO SU FAMILIA SE ENCUENTRE EN GOZANDO DE CABAL SALUD.

LA SEÑORA DUEÑA DE LA CASA SE ENCUENTRA EN PUEBLA DE VISITA AL NIÑO QUE ESTUDIA ALLI, POR LO TANTO NO PUDE VERLA PARA PEDIRLE UN RECIBO TRABAJADO, PERO A SU REGRESO VERÉ ESTE ASUNTO DE INMEDIATO. LOS OTROS $ 200.00 QUE LE PEDÍ FUERON PARA COMPLETAR GASTOS DE REPARACIONES A LA INSTALACIÓN ELÉCTRICA QUE ESTABA EN PÉSIMAS CONDICIONES, COMO TAMBIÉN LAS DOZAS DE LA COCINA. ENTIENDO QUE ESTO TIENE QUE CORRER A CARGO DE LA DUEÑA, POR LO QUE LOS RECIBOS POR ESTOS TRABAJOS LOS CONSERVARÉ PARA DISCUTIR CON ELLA Y VER SI ES POSIBLE QUE DESCUENTE ESTE DINERO DE RENTAS FUTURAS.

SOBRE LA INSTALACIÓN DEL TELÉFONO ME DADO UN ANTICIPO DE $ 500.00 Y UN AMIGO DE APELLIDO RUBIO QUE TIENE MUCHA INFLUENCIA AQUÍ ESTÁ ARREGLANDO QUE NOS TOMEN EL PAGO TOTAL EN PARTES. POR AHORA PUEDE USTED PONER DE MI TELÉFONO PARTICULAR QUE ES EL 307. HE HABLADO TAMBIÉN CON EL GERENTE DEL BANCO DE CHIAPAS PARA LO RELATIVO A LA CUENTA QUE USTED DEBE ABRIR AL INSTALAR LA EMPRESA. ES MUY IMPORTANTE PARA EL FUTURO DESARROLLO DE LOS NEGOCIOS DEJAR ASENTADA UNA REPUTACIÓN DE SOLVENCIA ECONÓMICA, ESTA POBLACIÓN ES MUY PEQUEÑA Y PRONTO SE CONOCEN LOS RECURSOS DE LAS PERSONAS. AL ABRIR LA PEQUEÑA CUENTA DE LA CUAL ME HABLÓ USTED CONTARÍA CON CRÉDITOS Y MUCHAS VENTAJAS. YO ESTOY ARREGLANDO TODO LO QUE SE REFIERE A ESTO PARA CUANDO VENGA NO TENGA PROBLEMA EN CONSEGUIR LAS RECOMENDACIONES QUE EXIGEN LOS BANCOS. EL BANCO DE LONDRES Y MÉXICO NO TIENE SUCURSALES AQUÍ. YO PIENSO QUE UNA PEQUEÑA CUENTA DE $ 8,000.00 A 10,000.00 SERÍA SUFICIENTE.

EN ESPERA DE SU VISITA LE ENVIÉ UN RECIBO PROVISIONAL POR LA CANTIDAD TOTAL QUE ME HA CONFIADO, EN LA INTELIGENCIA DE QUE A SU LICENCIA LE PRESENTARÉ LOS RECIBOS Y GASTOS POR SEPARADO. APRECIO MUCHO SU OFRECIMIENTO DE COMPENSARME CON UNA CANTIDAD DE DINERO POR ESTE TRABAJO, PERO NO LO ACEPTO PARA MÍ SU AMISTAD Y LA CONFIANZA QUE ME DEPOSITA ES PAGO MÁS QUE SUFICIENTE. YA CUANDO USTED VENGA ME INVITARÁ UNAS COPAS QUE ESO SI ACEPTARÉ.

RUEGO A DIOS QUE SIGA BIEN EN COMPAÑÍA DE SU FAMILIA.

I have not as yet received any news from you and I would like to know something of you, as well as of the matters we have pending. You must realize that I am a bit concerned over your lack of communication with me, which I hope will be regularized soon.

For my part, I'm doing everything possible and going ahead with the work. In a short time we shall have at our disposal at normal business completely in touch with Central America. I'll give you more details soon, but in the meantime I hope to have more concrete news of you.

Cordial regards and I hope that the medicine we sent has been of some use.

1. On 31 March 1967, the apartment described in Reference A was "re-bugged" using an RT-2A, operating at 84 kHz.

2. This apartment was originally bugged as a surveillance site. Operational maneuvering target personalities were moved in. For operational reasons the original RT could not be used and was deactivated by removing the side leads. On 31 March 1967, the two microphones and the remaining cable were removed by Walter G. CORNBURY.

3. The RT-2A, operating at about 84 kHz was concealed in a wall outlet in the living room. Looking at the sketch sent with Reference A this outlet would be about one inch up on the right hand wall.

4. This is a single outlet mounted in a brick and plaster wall. The bottom of the outlet box, metal, was cut away using screwdrivers as chisels/wedges and a hole about 1 1/2" deep was then screened out of the brick and plaster to accommodate the length of the RT-2A. The microphone was mounted in sponge rubber and taped to the wall outlet. The RT-2A was wired across the outlet and all replaced in the wall. Considering the lack of sophistication by the target personalities this method of concealment is felt to be adequate.

Equipment used:

One GY-PA at BA 241 and assorted hand tools. The LP which is located on the same floor as the target, will be equipped with an SP-2 Receiver and a Revere tape recorder. This equipment has been on order and is expected to arrive in April.

6. Wallace B. ROYTON, who had obtained duplicate keys to the apartment checked and initially checked to make sure the target personalities were out of town and the target apartment was empty. Shortly after midnight ROYTON and COMBERRY entered the target building and went to the LP. Another check was made of the apartment and before entering, ROYTON was staked out on the street and observed by PENNING from the target apartment. About one hour was spent in the target and no problems were encountered. After installation, the unit was checked from the LP with satisfactory results. There were no problems leaving the target building or target area.

It is suggested that Wallace B. ROYTON be advised of the above and the fact that no ADF sheet has been submitted.

AUDIO

1. LISAMPAR. We are still without a firm date for the installation. This is no one's fault, just the results of the way things are done here. Two of the LPs have received equipment but it has not been set-up as yet for different operational reasons. At the moment there is some slight confusion on spare pairs to the two LPs. Originally, we thought each LP would be able to cover four target installations (eight pairs each) but this might not be possible because of some of the planned renovations by LIRISK. This is not a major problem by any means (if it truly is a problem) and can be corrected by one or two additional LPs.

2. A surreptitious entry and the installation of an SPT-2A (112 ACS) was made for the CUB and reported the operation through his own channels. There were no problems with the entry and the audio results are satisfactory.

3. McFLAME has been giving us some problems by cutting off when there is voice in the target room. The initial adjustments were made using radio/TV as the signal source and works fine. The problem in re-adjusting is waiting for the targets to (a) be in the target room and (b) talking. If these two conditions are met and McFLAME still cannot be adjusted, we will probably call Julian P. ZEIDER for assistance.

4. The TOY of Phillip S. KASSOEE was of great assistance in cleaning up almost all of the audio backlog. N2RR-15419 dated 24 February 1967 states coldly what he did but it was the diligence and completeness in which he did these jobs that made his TOY of such value to Mexico City Station.

5. One SRT-3R, battery power supply, and SRR-5 receiver were installed in a safehouse to cover a meeting. The case officer did the monitoring and later removed the equipment. Results were satisfactory.

6. The safehouse bugged in WPA-30155 dated 27 September 1966 has been deactivated. The wire leads into the safehouse have been removed and if the situation permits the microphones will be removed sometime in the future. Wallace B. ROWTON made the partial removal (and will probably also remove the microphones). No ADP sheet has been submitted with this report but it should be brought to the attention of Frances G. RIGHTMIRE.

MEMORANDUM FOR RECORD

27 March 1967

SUBJECT : Tape Recording of LIRING-3/ROWTON Meeting

REFERENCE: HMDA 31310, 8 September 1967

1. Subject tape consists of a 75-minute recording of a meeting between Wallace B. ROWTON and LIRING-3 at the LIRING-3 safehouse on 20 January 1967 (this safehouse is now no longer being used as such but rather as a residence for LIRING-3 and his wife).

2. Following are facts extracted from a quick run through of the tape:

a. LIRING-3 made a long distance telephone call to ~~Ruby~~ <sup>X</sup> SUAREZ de Rodriguez at telephone 30-67-04 in Havana. <sup>wife of</sup>
He placed the call from the safehouse phone 14-18-56.

~~ENXKX~~ The call was made in connection with a possible forthcoming trip of LIRING-3 <sup>to Guatemala, on</sup> ~~to Havana~~. It was developed during the call that Ruby was the wife of <sup>X</sup> Arnol Rodriguez <sup>Camp</sup> and that their daughter was seriously ill. This information <sup>high</sup> apparently was previously known to LIRING-3 who used the <sup>also</sup> illness as a pretext for the call. Ruby had asked <sup>official.</sup> LIRING-3 to obtain medicine for the daughter which was known as NECCRAM. LIRING-3 advised Ruby that he was unable to locate any medicine by this name and asked for the formula of the medicine or the name of the <sup>laboratory</sup> label producing it. During the conversation LIRING-3 said that he expected to be in <sup>Castro</sup> Havana within 15 to 20 days. During this meeting ROWTON set up a 5,000 pesos revolving fund with LIRING-3.

c. During the conversation the names Navarrete (Carlos) and Jacobs were mentioned. It is believed that these names referred to (Carlos Navarrete and Jacobs RODRIGUEZ Padilla) artists and leftist friends of LIRING-3.

d. Another name was mentioned, that of Max SANTANA although the meaning of the reference was unclear. (Max Santana is a well-known Cuban exile in Mexico City who was formerly a labor leader in the pre-Castro era. He is somewhat of a chieftain rascal and has to make his living the best he can, but he is also the representative of Carlos PRIO, a former president of Cuba, in Mexico. The CUIS has several times expressed interest in Max SANTANA to double agents handled by the Station.)

e. An interesting item was dropped by LIRING-3 in connection with an alleged statement by Fidel Castro that the young Mexican Communist Party members working in Cuba were "algo burgues". The remark was interesting in view of the strained relations between PCM and PC.

Secret

f. Another interesting remark dropped by LIRING-3 was that the Cuban leaders are highly unhappy "con el embajador!" This is interesting in light of independent reports we have had that the Cuban Ambassador was anything but a happy man when he returned a few days ago from his two month vacation in Cuba.

g. Several telephone calls occurred during the course of the meeting or just afterwards. One of these involved an apparent inquiry by the person calling in as to the name in which the phone was registered because LIRING-3 said that the telephone was in the name of Maria Sanchez. Another telephone call of interest occurred during the meeting. It was apparently made by a young lady calling in connection with an anticipated meeting with LIRING-3. As the tape ran out LIRING-3 apparently was waiting for the young lady's arrival.

1. The LIRING-3 operation, because of its scope, involving information bearing on Cuba, Mexico, Guatemala, and now possibly the Soviet Union, and because of its promise of possibly producing important information on Cuban/Soviet subversion-support mechanisms operating in and through Mexico, has naturally been closely followed by all Headquarters components concerned with these areas.

2. Because of the recent developments in the operation, and because of the importance of the target, Headquarters is anxious to establish, as precisely as possible and as soon as possible, a basis for judging LIRING-3's reliability and access. This is particularly important in view of the apparently rapid progress LIRING-3 is making in creating a channel for the movement of arms and supplies from the United States to Guatemala. There is a very real concern felt here about our involvement in the creation of this channel while we have not yet clearly established how we could control it. We do not wish to find ourselves in the position of having aided the guerrillas to receive even a small amount of weapons or supplies. And we must guard against the possibility that the CUIS has not been taken in, and that it is monitoring this entire operation. If this is true, while we can only

speculate on their motives for encouraging the creation of the supply channel, we can be certain those motives are inimical to the interests of the United States. 3. So far it has not been possible to confirm LIRING-3's contacts with the FAR or PGT in Guatemala or in Mexico, the nature of his contacts with the Cuban Embassy in Mexico, or with Cuban officials in Cuba. We know that he has traveled to Guatemala, to Cuba, and has visited the Cuban Embassy, but have only his word on what transpired after he arrived at these places. On the other hand, we have confirmed that he has withheld information from us, e.g., the fact that his wife worked in the Cuban Embassy and that his father-in-law resides in the United States. 4. It is partially for this reason therefore, that Headquarters is particularly anxious that LIRING-3's contact with "Garcia" should be confirmed and "Garcia" identified. Also, of course, if "Garcia" is the FAR representative in Mexico and is in contact with the Soviets, then identifying him is an important objective in itself, apart from the establishment of LIRING-3's bona fides. 5. Given the difficulty of confirming LIRING-3's accounts of contacts inside Cuba, inside Guatemala, or even inside the Cuban Embassy, Headquarters sees the LIRING-3 - Garcia contact, in the favorable operational climate of Mexico City, as providing the opportunity to obtain the confirmation which is so much needed in this operation. 6. While it is understood that Station is as appreciative as is Headquarters of the importance of identifying Garcia, we wish by this dispatch to emphasize the sense of urgency which we consider proper for this identification effort. We urge that the Station consider surveillance of the earliest possible meeting of which it has sufficient advance knowledge to mount coverage. It is also suggested, since Garcia may travel to the Soviet Union and this next meeting with LIRING-3 may be quite some time in the future, that the Station explore all possible investigative means to identify Garcia which could be initiated without waiting for a surveillable meeting. Possibilities which have been discussed here include: periodic surveillance of LIRING-3; LIFEAT and LIMUD coverage of LIRING-3; passage of photos of Guatemalans who could possibly be Garcia to Rowton who, if a suitable explanation for his possession of the photos could be devised, could show them to LIRING-3 for identification; including "Garcia" in a listing of aliases known to be used by FAR members, and asking LIREBEL-1 to identify the user; or, obtaining a detailed physical description of Garcia for possible identification by LIREBEL-1, Guatemala Station, or Guatemala Station assets. 7. The special difficulties inherent in a false-flag recruitment are appreciated by Headquarters and it is (continued) understood that in many situations only the case officer himself can determine how far and how fast he can go in pressing the agent for information or details on any given subject. Thus the Station may find some of the above suggestions to be not feasible or may be able to suggest other investigative means which would offer greater prospects for success. Headquarters, of course, defers to Station on the specific means to be used and will appreciate receiving information on developments.

It is noted in Reference that LIRING-3 ran into one Enrique MARTINEZ, a 34-year old photographer and old friend, who was currently employed at the Secretaria de Hacienda office in San Cristobal. As of possible interest and assistance to the Station in obtaining further information on Subject, it is noted that one Enrique MARTINEZ Ascencio is mentioned on Page 67 of the Directorio del Poder Ejecutivo Federal 1965; as then being an employee of the Oficina Federal de Hacienda in Irapuato, Guanajuato (Gto.). Headquarters has no traces on MARTINEZ Ascencio.

Subject: Monthly Report of Developments in LIRING/3 Operation.

1. During the month Rowton continued to meet with LIRING/3 regularly, on an average of three times per week, for about one hour, at the safe-house and (later in the month) at LIRING/3's permanent residence. LIRING/3 continued to accept Rowton's guidance and direction virtually without question. On 15 February Rowton prepared the draft of a project outlining targets and objectives in order to solidify Kubark's relationship with LIRING/3. In order to facilitate financial arrangements with LIRING/3 a revolving fund of 5,000 pesos was given to him by Rowton to be accounted for periodically against receipts.

2. Developments with respect to Cuba:

During the reporting period LIRING/3's relationship with the Cubans deteriorated for reasons not as yet fully understood either by Rowton or LIRING/3 himself. It will be recalled that, following his passing of sensitive information on the Lopez arrest, LIRING/3 was invited to Havana to discuss further collaboration. His subsequent visit, however, was not as fruitful as expected, despite the fact that he finally met with Cienfuegos through the intervention of his friend Arnol Rodriguez. In lieu of a specific mission for the Cubans, as both LIRING/3 and Rowton hoped, he was brushed off on an apparently unimportant commercial assignment. LIRING/3 felt strongly that he should establish relationships with the Guatemalan rebels on his own (through Jacobo Rodriguez), more or less ignoring the Cubans, and particularly the DSE, in the hope that the Cubans would inevitably recognize the merit of his efforts and take him into their confidence. At Rowton's urging, however, LIRING/3 agreed to write his friend Arnol Rodriguez a letter explaining more fully his position and informing him that he was in any case moving ahead with his plan to help the Guatemalan rebels. This apparently did the trick, since Rodriguez passed a message to him through the Cuban Ambassador that he was invited back to Havana for further discussions. LIRING/3 expressed a great deal of self-satisfaction at this development, but felt he should continue with the FAR representatives in order to have more concrete data to discuss with the Cubans when he did return to Havana. He therefore returned to Guatemala in order to advise the FAR representatives that he had succeeded in obtaining the medicine and radio tubes they had originally asked for.

In February, however, he received word from Arnol Rodriguez through a diplomatic courier that he should not return to Havana until he had received further instructions from Arnol Rodriguez himself. Subsequently, on 15 February, LIRING/3 learned from the chauffeur of the Cuban Ambassador that Julian Lopez had alleged that LIRING/3 had obtained the information regarding his arrest from the Mexican police, and, by insinuation, was collaborating with the Mexican authorities. The chauffeur added that LIRING/3 should be aware that there were certain elements, including Cepeda, in the local Embassy hostile to him. This report led LIRING/3 to check with the Cuban Consulate re the status of his visa (authorized in early January, by Arnol Rodriguez) and to his surprise he learned that the visa had "run out" and would have to be renewed in the event he desired to travel to Cuba again. This development left LIRING/3 perplexed and disturbed, as well as more annoyed than ever with the bureaucratic shenanigans of the DSE. LIRING/3 felt genuinely outraged since he in his own mind had only the best of intentions in his offer to help the Cubans and in general the revolution in Central America. LIRING/3's first reaction was to ignore the Cubans completely and proceed unilaterally with his collaboration with the Guatemalans. He was encouraged in this by comments made by the FAR contact in Mexico City to the effect that the Cubans were difficult people to deal with and sometimes even FAR found it best to ignore them. Rowton, however, urged LIRING/3 to redevelop more cordial relations with the local mission, since any hostile elements there could cause him endless embarrassment and annoyance. Rowton also advised LIRING/3 to continue his development of Ismail Suarez de la Paz, who appears to have a direct channel to Arnol Rodriguez, and who himself has often complained of the inefficiency and ineptness of the Cuban bureaucrats. During the latter half of the month LIRING/3 made more frequent visits to the Embassy and chatted cordially with Abreu. As of 28 February, however, no further message has been received from Arnol Rodriguez to clarify LIRING/3's current relationship with the Cubans.

Developments with respect to Guatemala:

During the month LIRING/3's relationship with FAR was strengthened by direct contact with the FAR representative in Mexico City. On 13 February a Guatemalan telephoned LIRING/3 at his residence and at the meeting arranged for 20 February, identified himself as the FAR liaison who would be seeing him more or less regularly in the future. The FAR liaison, who stated his name was Garcia, explained that he was planning a trip to the Soviet Union in the near future, and was anxious prior to his departure to have LIRING/3 meet with three other comrades preferably in San Cristóbal when the medicine and radio tubes were being delivered. LIRING/3 agreed to make the trip, since at the same time he could arrange the rental of a suitable house in the area for future contacts. LIRING/3 therefore made plans to depart with the supplies for San Cristóbal on 1 March.

LIRING/3 had not informed the Cuban Embassy of his newly developed liaison with FAR, but has indicated in a general way to Arnol Rodriguez that he is engaged in support activities for the revolution in Guatemala. He hopes to clarify with the FAR more precisely what his own relationship with the Cubans should be with regard to their activities, especially in light of the fact that the FAR representative has informed him that direct aid is now being received from the Soviets and certain of his activities are not being made known to the Cubans. In general in his dealings with the Guatemalans, LIRING/3 feels more comfortable since his relationship with them is uncomplicated at the moment by such antecedents as the Lopez affair. He is impressed by the efficiency and professional approach of FAR and in undoubtedly influenced by the relative ease with which he can perform for them in Mexico.

Cover Aspects of LIRING/3's Operations:

During the month of February, LIRING/3 presented a formal request to the Dirección General de Comercio through his friend Sergio González Marin for the establishment of a small factory to assemble the plastic flowers produced by the Metaloplastica de Guatemala. In anticipation of a request by the Secretariat for details and assurances that the flowers will be exported to the U.S. and not compete with local production, LIRING/3 re-established contact with his half-brother who lives in Sabenas and has excellent commercial contacts with firms in San Antonio, in the hope of soliciting his help in finding an American importer who will contract to purchase the entire production of the factory once it is set up in Mexico. At the same time LIRING/3, on Rowton's suggestion, will investigate the possibility of establishing a modest factory in the house he plans to rent in San Cristóbal. Negotiations with local authorities in that area would be much simpler than in Mexico City and at the same time the factory would provide excellent cover for the safehouse.

If and when the flower project materializes, arrangements can easily be made by LIRING/7 to have the first shipment sent from Guatemala City by truck to San Cristóbal. A qualified Mexican can likewise be sent to learn the technical details of assembly at the Metaloplastica plant in Guatemala City.

The entire commercial cover plan has been accepted enthusiastically by FAR since it presents to them the inviting prospect of a viable legal network operating from Texas to Guatemala City. LIRING/3 realizes the delicacy of the future relationship with Metaloplastica and LIRING/7 and has promised to compartment as much as possible, at least for the present, his activities on behalf of FAR from those of a purely commercial nature.

3. During the month it was necessary for LIRING/3 to move his family into the safehouse, which he had rented in his own name, in order to disabuse the landlady of her growing suspicions that the apartment was being used for some unorthodox purpose. LIRING/3 explained to the landlady that he had been having some domestic problems with his wife, but that things had been patched up and that they were now able to resume their married life together. This has apparently satisfied the curiosity of the landlady. Another safehouse, under cover of an art studio, will be located for future meetings between LIRING/3 and Rowton. The original plan to monitor the safehouse from the apartment below has been abandoned in view of the undesirability of the couple currently residing in the proposed LP.

1. Before his departure from Mexico City on 25 February, Frank C. WENBERRY informed LIRING-5 and LIRING-6, re Station directive, that the rent of their apartment would not be paid after March 15, 1967. This means that this Station will not continue to use LIRING-5 and LIRING-6 as safe-house keepers, primarily for the reasons mentioned in reference B.

2. Station is currently looking for more suitable safe-house keepers to be either in the apartment that will be vacated by LIRING-5 and LIRING-6 on 15 March (they have indicated that they cannot afford this apartment on their own) or in another apartment in the same or adjacent buildings. It is this Station's intention to increase monitoring of LIRING-3's activities in the apartment directly above that lived in by LIRING-5 and LIRING-6. LIRING-3 and his wife recently moved in this apartment which LIRING-3 had so far used as a safe-house. Station will advise as soon as suitable candidates are located for this purpose.

1. LIRING-3 TOLD WALLACE B. BOWEN 21 FEB 67. THAT HIS FAR CONTACT HAD MET HIM AFTERNOON OF 20 FEB. L-3 DESCRIBED CONTACT AS ABOUT FORTY, TYPICAL GUATEMALAN WHO IDENTIFIED SELF AS "GARCIA". CONTACT AND L-3 DISCUSSED GUAT GUERRILLA SITUATION ABOUT THREE HOURS.
2. FAR REP TOLD L-3 THAT RECENT REPRESSIVE MEASURES OF GUAT POLICE HAVE MADE IT EXTREMELY DIFFICULT FOR GUERRILLAS TO OPERATE IN THEIR CUNTRY. ADDING TO PROBLEMS ARE DEFECTIONS TO POLICE OF SOME GUERRILLAS AND OTHERS WHO BELIEVED BE PROVOCATEURS. AND ADDITIONAL OBSTACLE IS FACT THERE ARE TWO FACIONS AMONG REBELS - ONE, CESAR MONTES FAR GROUP SUPPORTED BY SOVIETS AND CUBANS, AND TWO, YON SOSA GROUP WHICH LEANS AWAY FROM SOVIET AND CUBAN INFLUENCE AND IS CONSIDERED TO BE OF TROTSKY SENTIMENTS. MONTES GROUP ENJOYS RELATIVELY GOOD SUPPORT FROM SOVIETS FROM WHOM IT OBTAINS FUNDS AND ORGANIZATIONAL GUIDANCE. AT SAME TIME IT'S LIAISON WITH HAVANA IS WELL ESTABLISHED. SOSA PRO TROTSKY GROUP HAS LITTLE OR NO RELIABLE MEANS SUPPORT AND MUST RESORT TO KIDNAPPINGS AND BANK ROBBERIES TO <sup>ob</sup> OBTAIN FUNDS.

3. GARCIA EXPLAINED THAT MONTES GROUP CURRENTLY NOT IN DESPERATE NEED SUPPLIES OR EQUIPMENT AND HAS SUFFICIENT FUNDS FOR ITS PURPOSES. MONTES GROUP MAINTAINS RELATIVELY FREQUENT LIAISON WITH HAVANA BUT EXPERIENCE HAS SHOWN IT CANNOT EXPECT SUPPORT FROM HAVANA AS ORIGINALLY ANTICIPATED. GARCIA MADE CLEAR TO L-3 THAT FAR WOULD NOT OBJECT IF L-3 HAD CONTACT WITH PRO TROTSKY GROUP SINCE IT ALL SAME STRUGGLE AND REVOLUTION.

4. GARCIA STATED HE AND FRIENDS DISCUSSED L-3 AT LENGTH AND ALL AGREED L-3 PLAN ESTABLISH VIABLE COMMERCIAL CHANNELS FROM GUATEMALA THROUGH MEXICO TO UNITED STATES WAS EXCELLENT. FAR NOT IMMEDIATELY IN NEED HIS SUPPLIES AND COULD WELL AFFORD PAY FOR THEM PLUS ANY EXPENSES L-3 INCURRED, GARCIA FEARED TRANSFER OF MEDICINE AND TUBES IN MEXICO CITY BECAUSE OF INCREDIBLE NETWORK OF AGENTS RUN BY NORTH AMERICANS THROUGHOUT CITY. HE AND FRIENDS BELIEVED SECURE BASE FOR MEETING AND TRANSFER WAS IN SAN CRISTOBAL DE LOS CASAS, CHIAPAS, WHICH L-3 PREVIOUSLY HAD SUGGESTED. GARCIA STATED HE WANTED INTRODUCE L-3 TO THREE OR FOUR COMRADES BUT IT DIFFICULT FOR THEM TRAVEL FROM GUAT CITY TO MEXICO CITY AND THEY DID NOT WISH EXPOSE L-3 TO DANGERS OF TRAVEL IN GUAT.

5. GARCIA ASKED L-3 MOVE GOODS TO SAN CRISTOBAL WHERE "FRIENDS"

FOLLOWING WEEK FOR 20 DAY TRIP. ADDED HE WANTED DISCUSS ALL ASPECTS OF FUTURE COLLABORATION AT LENIN, PRIOR HIS DEPARTURE, SO THAT ACTIVITIES COULD MOVE AHEAD DURING HIS ABSENCE.

6. GARCIA TOLD L-3 THAT FAR HAS LEARNED NOT TO EXPECT MUCH MATERIAL SUPPORT FROM CUBANS. L-3 REFERRED TO HIS OWN DIFFICULTIES WITH HAVANA (CITING CHARGES HE MUST BE IN CONTACT WITH MEXICAN POLICE TO HAVE PRODUCED INFORMATION IN LOPEZ CASE). GARCIA ADVISED HIM BE PATIENT AND NOT OVERLY CONCERNED AND STATED THAT IT OFTEN BEST WITH SUCH PEOPLE TO PLAY HARD TO GET RATHER THAN LET THEM THINK THEY ARE ALL IMPORTANT. GARCIA CONTRASTED BOTH OF DEALING WITH CUBANS AGAINST SMOOTHNESS OF RELATIONS WITH SOVIETS.

7. L-3 ASKED GARCIA ABOUT ALICIA ECHEVERRIA, WHOM HE MET
RECENTLY AND WHO IS COUSIN OF LUIS ECHEVERRIA, SECRETARY OF GOBERNACION, TO CHECK ON HER BONA FIDES. THOUGH HE DID NOT KNOW HER PERSONALLY, GARCIA SAID SHE WAS CONSIDERED GENERALLY POLITICALLY ACCEPTABLE
BUT CAUTIONED L-3 AGAINST CONFIDING IN HER ANY MORE THAN NECESSARY.

L-3 SAID HERRERA HAS ALWAYS BEEN VERY FRIENDLY TO HIM AND HIS FAMILY. AT MEETING THAT NIGHT HERRERA TOLD L-3 THAT JULIAN LOPEZ DIAZ HAD STATED IN HAVANA THAT L-3 HAD REPORTED CERTAIN INFORMATION ABOUT LOPEZ ARREST CASE WHICH COULD ONLY HAVE COME FROM MEXICAN POLICE AND LOPEZ CONSEQUENTLY ALLEGED THAT L-3

3. STORY BOTHERED L-3 AND MORNING 16 FEB HE WENT TO CUBAN CONSULATE AND CHECKED ON VISA FOR HAVANA TRIP WHICH HAD BEEN AUTHORIZED BY GOC MONTH PREVIOUSLY. L-3 STATED THIS PROBABLY WHY HE RECEIVED MESSAGE FROM CUBAN COURIER WEEK PREVIOUSLY TO EFFECT THAT ARNOL RODRIGUEZ CAMPS ASKED L-3 NOT GO TO HAVANA UNTIL HE, RODRIGUEZ, GAVE HIM INSTRUCTIONS. L-3 ALSO REMEMBERED THAT ISMAIL SUAREZ DE LA PAZ DURING PREVIOUS WEEK HAD SUGGESTED L-3 POSTPONE HIS TRIP TO HAVANA UNTIL SUAREZ COULD ACCOMPANY HIM.

5. ROWTON AGREED WITH L-3 SURMISES BUT ADVISED HIM TO ATTEMPT REGAIN GOOD GRACES OF LOCAL MISSION AND NOT ALIENATE HIMSELF FROM SUCH PERSONS AS CEPEDA AND L-1. Total LIRING-3 expenses 1 May 1966-28 February 1967 = $3,000 +

Total will exceed $10,000 by now (1 May 67).

Realistically, much of LIRING-7 expense should be added to this total, since L-7 main function has been to support LIRING-3 op.

LIRING-3 op has occupied <sup>large</sup> major portion ROWTON time over past year. Plus time from other Station and Headquarters personnel in support. It is an expensive op.

Has produced five dissem. Two of these later proven false, one proven to be basically true (by LIENVOY), on other two have no further info either way.

LIRING-3 has also reported considerable other info which comes under heading of positive intel, but was not dissemed because at the time he reported it it was doubtful, known to be false, fragmentary, etc.

Over the past year it has not been possible to verify even one ~~important~~ important statement or claim of the many made by L-3 (persons he has talked to, actions he has taken, information he has obtained, etc.). L-3 has claimed actions and contacts ranging from Mexico City to Havana, to Wusteraia City, to Texas, and points in between. While we know he traveled through these areas, nothing really conclusive or key is confirmed. On the other hand, several of his claims are known to be false.

Given our inability to check-out L-3 statements, ~~now~~ solid conclusion or evaluation of op is possible. A good bet would be that L-3 has completely fabricated 90% of his information and claimed actions. His motive would be money, since this op has paid off very well so far for him.

A good bet would be that he suspects Rowton is US Intelligence, based on the requirements levied on him, the ready supply of money, the clandestinity of the whole relationship, the Lopez Diaz-Rico Galan info Rowton gave him.

Either looking for more money, favors, or out of political inclination, he probably would have informed the Cubans of his relationship with Rowton, if he suspects Rowton is US Intelligence.

Cubans could very possibly have not believed L-3 story. It is a wild one. Or they could have been afraid of Mexican or US provocation. Certainly they would be doubly cautious on arms smuggling after the embarrassing Lopez affair.

Or they could be monitoring the whole op. It doubtful they directing it, given L-3's careless use of the telephone and involved story which too easy to check, if we really made the effort! A good Cuban Intel officer, telling L-3 what to do and say, should be able to do better. Or maybe L-3 doesn't follow Cuban instructions any better than he follows Rowton's,

LIRING/3 - Norris K. UTHLETT Chronology

Carlos JURADO Delmar, a Mexican artist and existentialist, is an unwitting informant who has Mexican far leftist political convictions. He has been assessed by his handler as unfriendly to the U.S. and not a candidate for recruitment. JURADO's wife, Miriam CHICHAY, a Chinese-Cuban, worked in the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City until November 1966 for LIRING/1 and LIRING/2. ROWTON pretends to be a Greek businessman interested in developing<sup>g</sup> lucrative, semi-legal business with Cuba. JURADO may have the impression that ROWTON is really somehow connected with Soviet intelligence - a notion ROWTON has not attempted to ~~discuss~~<sup>correct.</sup> He has convinced JURADO that to be successful the two of them must be fully aware of all the realities of Cuban politics and commerce. JURADO, who lived in Cuba for a couple of years following CASTRO's accession, has maintained friendships with some well-placed contacts in Cuba. He has made three trips to Havana in connection with his relationships with ROWTON, who obtains information from JURADO by eliciting and direct questioning.

As a result of the injection of JURADO by Station Mexico City into the sensational JULIAN LOPEZ Diaz/Guatemalan Arms Struggling case, JURADO was asked by the Cuban Embassy to help the GOC with their sensitive activities in Mexico and to go to Havana for a briefing on what he could do. To inject JURADO into the case, Station Mexico City furnished him with some theretofore undisclosed information on the arrest by Mexican authorities of LOPEZ Diaz, a Cuban diplomat, <sup>the</sup> <sup>inferred that</sup> allegedly ~~from~~ <sup>came</sup> from a Guatemalan reporter who had obtained it from a member of the Guatemalan Communist party. In Havana, JURADO discussed the case at length with his friend and contact, Arnol RODRIGUEZ Camps, a former Vice-Minister in the Cuban Foreign Ministry.

He also told RODRIGUEZ details of a plan to form his Mexican and Central American contacts into a network which could support clandestine ~~operations~~, Cuban operations. RODRIGUEZ appeared to be impressed, according to JURADO's story, and introduced JURADO to Osmani CIENFUEGOS, Chairman of the Foreign Affairs Committee of the Central Committee of the Cuban Communist Party (the body charged with the responsibility for implementing Cuban subversion in Latin America.). JURADO reported that CIENFUEGOS expressed appreciation for JURADO's offer of assistance and stated that Cuba is interested in exporting subversion to Central America to harass the United States. ~~CIENFUEGOS~~
CIENFUEGOS reportedly went on to say that the Cubans ~~trusted~~ JURADO but not his contacts about whom they know nothing. He further explained that one untrustworthy link could blow the entire effort and then suggested that JURADO be given the opportunity to test the sincerity of his contacts. RODRIGUEZ reportedly suggested that JURADO arrange a deal to barter Cuban Nickel ore for weed killer.
(Cuban Nickel ore is already being offered in Mexico by other dealers and Mexican-made weed killer is readily available on the open market in Mexico).

Despite Headquarters suggestions that JURADO go slowly in setting up his support net to the Guatemalan guerrillas, <sup>AND DO NOT SET UP! GUERRILLAS DO NOT WANT THEIR REQUEST,</sup> ~~THE~~ ROWTON sent him to establish contact ~~with~~ with them on the Mexican/Guatemalan border in early December 1966. JURADO established contact with a man in Mexico City who gave him a letter of introduction to a woman in Guatemala City. The woman was to carry the letter to Cesar MONTES, Guatemalan guerrilla leader and explain that he could ~~not~~ trust JURADO and should take advantage of his offer. At the same time JURADO sent a letter to RODRIGUEZ in Havana explaining that he <sup>w</sup>ould not make his commercial contact witting of any arms passed through the proposed channel. He also sent information on weed killers and requested details for possibly consummating the deal.

In mid-December JURADO again traveled to a town on the Mexican side of the Guatemalan border and contacted the guerrilla representatives. He reported that he was taken "black" across the border to Guatemala City where the guerrillas told him of some of their problems in obtaining material, specifically mentioning their need for some radio tubes and medical supplies. JURADO committed himself to providing those items along with a concrete proposal for regular contact. The guerrillas reportedly told JURADO that they could handle the goods from the Mexican side of the border to their base camp in Guatemala.

At this point the Mexico City Station proposed to mount a parallel operation involving Norris K. UPHLETT, a 33 year old Greek who was recruited in 1952 by ROWTON to penetrate the U.S., Greek, and Cuban Communist Parties. UPHLETT performed adequately in these tasks including all but the last two years of over five spent in Cuba.

POWTON sent UNPHLETT to Guatemala in late February 1966 on a "business development" trip to establish contact with <sup>elements</sup> who could be used as support elements for subversion including clandestine resupply of guerrilla groups. It was proposed that these elements would be offered to the CUIS <sup>in hope they would utilize them.</sup> ~~meeting a Greek Communist in Guatemala City. He had been~~ ~~the Communist Party of Guatemala. He had been~~ ~~UNPHLETT met a~~
Greek Communist <sup>who</sup> owns a chocolate factory in Guatemala City where he has harbored leftists and ~~is~~ <sup>claims</sup> to be related to an EDA deputy in Athens. UNPHLETT is to exploit this relationship in an effort to land a job in the business as a cover to assist the Greek in clandestine activity.

In mid-January 1967 JURADO reported that the Cuban Ambassador <sup>had</sup> called him aside at a party to tell him that RODRIGUEZ cabled the Embassy to request JURADO's presence in Cuba for additional discussions.
Rather than jump on Havana's command, JURADO called RODRIGUEZ to inform him he would have to make another trip to Guatemala first.
JURADO reported that he was approached by another Guatemala Communist who claimed, in confidence, that he was part of the FAR network in Mexico and had been advised that massive Soviet aid (in excess of $200,000) was available to the FAR "directly" but with qualifications that would in effect place the FAR under complete Soviet control. He explained that it was for this reason that the FAR was raising funds on its own by subh means as bank and train robberies, in Central America.

At the end of January JURADO reported he had made contact with the FAR representatives in Guatemala City and had made arrangements for permanent liaison in Mexico City and Havana. He was given contact instructions, which would be initiated by the FAR representatives, and was told ~~instructions~~ to pass the supplies (that he had committed himself to providing) to the contact man in Mexico City.

A special envoy from Cuba visited JURADO the day after he returned from Guatemala for the ostensible purpose of passing on some advice and guidance of a security nature. RAYTON speculated that the Cubans - particularly RODRIGUEZ - were afraid JURADO had taken offense at their treatment of him on his last ~~visit~~ visit to Cuba, and sent someone to salve his feelings. The envoy gave JURADO a lot of advice on how to handle himself with respect to the Cuban Embassy personnel, American intelligence, and on security and tradecraft in general.

On 15 February HERRERA, the Cuban Embassy chauffeur and a friend of JURADO, met with the agent to tell him some rumors he had heard involving JURADO including the statement that there were certain "hostile elements" toward JURADO in the Embassy. RAYTON cautioned JURADO not to be too aloof with the Embassy causing them to react unfavorably toward him for no reason ~~other than~~ than that they were out of touch with him.

On 20 February "Garcia" the FAR representative in Mexico, <sup>City</sup> set up a meeting with JURADO but agreed that JURADO's plan to take the goods to the Mexican/Guatemalan border was better than <sup>to have them passed in</sup> Mexico.

City because of "the incredible network of agents run by the North Americans throughout the city." He said that the FAR didn't have an urgent need for the supplies because they were adequately supplied by the Soviets and Cubans but that the FAR had no objections to JURADO dealing with Yon Sosa's TR-13 November which is not so well supplied. "Garcia" said he was scheduled to travel to the Soviet Union and wanted to discuss <sup>with Sosa</sup> all the aspects of <sup>his</sup> support operation so that activities could move ahead in his absence. "Garcia" contrasted the "bother" of dealing with the Cubans with the <sup>smoothness of</sup> ~~relations~~ relations with the Soviets.

On 2 March JURADO traveled to the Mexico/Guatemala border <sup>part of</sup> town of San Cristobal to deliver/the ~~to~~ supplies to the representatives of the FAR guerrillas. "Garcia" showed up and he and JURADO went to a ~~town~~ <sup>town</sup> nearest the Guatemalan border where they transferred the goods. "Garcia" said he would take possession of the refrigerated drugs in Mexico City after returning from the USSR. The FAR representatives explained <sup>that</sup> they had a fairly good network in Texas for the acquisition of ~~arms~~ <sup>arms</sup> but were having trouble transporting them. They indicated JURADO's plan was better than anything they have going and would probably adopt it. Before he left for USSR, "Garcia" called JURADO to tell him that Cesar MONTES and Yon SOSA had patched up their differences and the Guatemalan guerrilla movement would move ahead faster now.

ANALYSIS AND COMMENTS

INTENT OF THE OPERATION: To provide information: # Guatemalan insurgency; Cuban - and perhaps - Soviet support of subversion in Guatemala; the use of Mexico by the Cubans and Soviets to support Guatemalan insurgency; identify people, pin-point locations, and establish methods of operation of insurgents and their support networks in Guatemala and Mexico.

1. ESTABLISHMENT OF SUPPLY NETWORK - KOTON is having LIRING/3 establish a supply network in Mexico and Guatemala to pass materiel to the insurgents in Guatemala. The supplies could originate in either the U.S., Cuba, or by sea from any country. In doing this, members of existing support networks are not being identified - only the aliases of some of LIRING/3's contacts. This network could very well operate parallel to other such channels and we would not learn any more than we are learning now. In fact, we could conceivably assist Guatemalan insurgency and get little or nothing in return -- and should the operation go awry this agency would be hard put to explain the circumstances. You can be sure the leftists would have a field day. We are not adverse to providing some materiel as long as we get something in return.

2. LIRING/3'S REPORTING - None of the information LIRING/3 has reported has been corroborated by other sources. Only the existence and presence of some of the contacts has been confirmed by technical operations at the Station, but not the information. So far we, and ROWTON, have no choice but to believe most of what LIRING/3 tells us. [ROWTON's capability in the Spanish language is only adequate and one taped meeting showed that LIRING/3 spole right over ROWTON and dominated the conversation.] It is conceivable that LIRING/3 is controlling the entire operation and that ROWTON is not able to discern this. Also, because of the unusual nature of their relationship and ROWTON's cover ROWTON is not able to question LIRING/3 too deeply in some areas and not at all in others. And we are assuming that ROWTON's cover is effective.

art: this may need correction

3. SURVEILLANCE - The LIRING/3 operation has been going for over a year now and the only surveillance of the agent has been an abortive attempt at tapping his telephone and an audio device in the safehouse in which he and his wife are now living. His phone should be tapped constantly, his mail should be intercepted and read, he should be surveilled for a couple of weeks to establish his pattern of activities, photographs should be taken of him and his contacts, and he should be investigated to find out where his money comes from, where it goes, what his wife does all day, etc.

4. SUMMARY - After a year the operation is not paying off as it should and the agency and ROWTON are committed to a situation that could backfire in several ways. Steps should be taken soon to confirm LIRING/3's access and information and to establish beyond the shadow of a doubt his bona fide. Headquarters is not at all convinced that 1) LIRING/3 believes ROWTON's cover story, 2) That LIRING/3 is in contact with the FAR, 3) that the opposition is not playing WOFAC for a sucker.

1. AT MEETING WITH WALLACE B. ROWTON 1 FEB 67, LIRING-3 REPORTED THAT ON EVE 30 JAN 67 ECHEMENDIA (ISMAEL SUAREZ DE LA PAZ) CONTACTED <sup>HIO</sup> ~~200~~ AT HOME AND GAVE L-3 LENGTHY FRIENDLY LECTURE ON SECURITY. THIS UNUSUAL INTEREST IN L-3 WELFARE LED LATTER TO CONCLUDE ECHEMENDIA HAD RECEIVED INSTRUCTIONS FROM HAVANA TO GIVE L-3 ADVICE AND GUIDANCE AS NEEDED.
2. ROWTON AGREES BUT FEELS PERHAPS CUBANS, PARTICULARLY ARNOL RODRIGUEZ CAMPS, UNDER IMPRESSION L-3, STILL SMARTING UNDER TREATMENT GIVEN BY DSE ON LAST VISIT. CUBA MAY NOT BE ANXIOUS RETURN HAVA AND FATHERLY TREATMENT BY ECHEMENDIA MEANT SALVE L-3 FEELINGS. LAST NOTE BY L-3 TO RODRIGUEZ STATED L-3 HAD TO MAKE ANOTHER TRIP SOUTH AND COULD NOT ACCEPT INVITATION GO HAVA IMMEDIATELY. RODRIGUEZ, AS A RESULT, MAY HAVE INSTRUCTED ECHEMENDIA TREAT L-3 WITH KID GLOVES AND HELP HIM BUT WITH DISCRETION.

3. LECTURE CITED PARA ONE ECHEMENDIA COVERED FOLL POINTS:

SECRET

B. L-3 SHLD BRAAK ALL RELATIONS WITH EMBASSY SOONEST. L-3 REPLIED HAD ALREADY DONE SO SINCE THEY OF NO HELP TO HIM EXCEPT AS COMMO CHANNEL. ECHEMENDIA THEN COMMENTED, "I DON'T KNOW EXACTLY WHAT YOU ARE DOING. I KNOW YOU COME AND GO THERE (CUBA) AND HAVE IMPORTANT RELATIONS OVER THERE. I AM SURE WHAT YOU ARE DOING IS IMPORTANT. I AM AN INFALLIBLE JUDGE OF CHARACTER AND I KNOW YOU ARE SERIOUS AND FOR THAT REASON I AM SPEAKING TO YOU OF THESE MATTERS."

SECRET

C. ECHEMENDIA ADVISED L-3 TAKE ALL POSSIBLE SECURITY MEASURES SINCE AMERICANS HAVE EXTENSIVE NETWORK MEXI CITY CAPABLE PROFESSIONAL SURVEILLANCE, CHANGING CARS, ETC. ADVISED L-3 NEVER USE TRUE NAME WHEN TRAVELING OR RENTING APARTMENTS. ECHEMENDIA THEN BOASTED THAT DURING REVOLUTION HE SO CAREFUL THAT NOT EVEN CLOSE COLLABORATORS AS ARNOL RODRIGUEZ EVER FOUND OUT TRUE NAME.

~~D. ECHEMENDIA STATED HIS THREE DAY STAY IN L-3~~

SAFE APT HAD REVEALED NUMBER OF POTENTIALLY RISKY POINTS. (L-3 LET ECHEMENDIA USE APT HE AND ROWTON USE 25, 26 AND 27 JAN <sup>AS</sup> AN ACCOMMODATION.) ECHENENDIA TOLD L-3 THAT MAID EMPLOYED AT APT, SENORA DE PONCE, WAS EXCEPTIONAL WOMAN IN WHOM ONE COULD HAVE GREAT CONFIDENCE, BUT THAT LANDLADY, SENORA MARIA SANCHEZ, APPEARED BE DANGEROUS MEDDLER AND SLANDERMONGER. SRA. DE PONCE RELATED TO HIM THAT RECENTLY SRA SANCHEZ STATED THAT AUTOMATIC TIMER WHICH TURNS ON LIVING ROOM LAMP AT NIGHT WAS ACTUALLY TRANSMITTER. ALTHOUGH ECHENENDIA SAID HE MORALLY CERTAIN SRA. DE PONCE DISABUSED HER OF THIS FANTASTIC IDEA, THERE ALWAYS POSSIBILITY REPORT ALREADY CARRIED TO POLICE OR AT LEAST NEIGHBORS. THUS ATTRACTING UNDUE ATTENTION TO APT. ECHENENDIA ADVISED L-3 LEAVE APT SOONEST AND ESTABLISH HIMSELF ELSEWHERE UNDER ALIAS.

E. FINALLY, ECHENENDIA INVITED L-3 COME TO HIM WITHOUT H<sup>E</sup>SITATION FOR GUIDANCE AND ADVICE ON ANY MATTER SINCE HE HAD YEARS OF EXPERIENCE AND COULD PROTECT L-3 AGAINST POTENTIAL FLAPS.

MEMORANDUM FOR LIRING-3 FILE

3 February 1967

The content of the Cuban Embassy Press Attache in Mexico City recently was the result of surveillance of Pedro FERRER-VILLA with whom the Cuban had had several meetings. The Cuban was alleged to be a link between the PFI of Cortijo faction of the CCI, the YLA and the FERRER-VILLA faction, a relation which prompted the Mexican Government to ask discreetly for his removal from Mexico City.

ON 19 JANUARY EDWEAPON-5 REPORTED THAT ONLY ADDITIONAL INFORMATION HE OBTAINED ON 9 JANUARY CONCERNING THE BOMBINGS OF FOUR CENTRAL AMERICAN EMBASSIES WAS THAT INSSTRUCTIONS FOR THE ATTACKS HAD COME FROM EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE (COR) OF THE FAR. DUE TIGHT SECURITY PROCEDURES IN EFFECT WITHIN GUATEMALAN COMMUNIST MOVEMENT, HE WAS NOT IN POSITION TO ASK DIRECT QUESTIONS AND EFFORTS TO ELICIT ADDITIONAL DETAILS WERE UNAVAIL. HE IS OF OPINION THAT DECISION TO CARRY OUT THE ATTACKS DID COME FROM WITHIN GUATEMALA AND THAT DECISION PROBABLY REACHED EITHER NIGHT 8 JANUARY OR MORNING 9 JANUARY. EDWEAPON-16 DID NOT RECEIVE ADVANCE NOTICE OF BOMBINGS (HE NOW PRIMARILY INVOLVED IN LABOR ACTIVITIES), BUT DID DISCUSS THE BOMBINGS WITH JOSE ALBERTO (CARDOZA) AGUILAR, MEMBER OF CENTRAL

1. USING REFS ABOVE AS BASIS FOR DISCUSSIONS BETWEEN _____ AND MEXICO CITY STATION OFFICERS ON OPERATIONS WHICH CAN BE INITIATED BY WOFAC TO AID MEXICAN AND GUATEMALAN GOVERNMENTS' COUNTER GUERRILLA ARMS SMUGGLING FROM MEXICO INTO GUATEMALA. FOLLOWING POINTS EVOLVED:

A. MEXICAN AND GUATEMALAN GOVERNMENTS APPARENTLY BELIEVE MOST SMUGGLING OCCURS IN SOUTHEASTERN PORTION STATE OF CHIAPAS ON MEXICAN SIDE AND SOUTHWESTERN PORTION GUATEMALA WHERE GOOD ACCESS ROADS EXIST. MOST SMUGGLING DONE VIA TRUCKS, BUSES AND OTHER VEHICLES. BOTH GOVERNMENTS COOPERATING CLOSELY AND HAVE BEEFED UP OR HAVE PLANS TO BEEF UP MILITARY UNITS

THIS BORDER AREA TO DETECT ARMS TRAFFIC. GUATEMALAN SECOND VICE MINISTER DEFENSE, COLONEL FRANCISCO SOSA AVILA, HAS INITIATED UNILATERAL OPERATION TO PENETRATE GUATEMALAN CUSTOMS HOUSES IN KEY AREAS TO DETERMINE WHO AIDING SMUGGLERS.

B. TREMENDOUS SURGE OF GOODWILL WHICH NOW EXISTS BETWEEN MEXICAN AND GUATEMALAN GOVERNMENTS WILL CERTAINLY AID IN KEEPING JOINT OPERATION OF WIPING OUT SMUGGLERS ON TRACK. TEND BELIEVE MAJOR WOFACT EMPHASIS SHOULD BE ENCOURAGEMENT AND AID TO BOTH GOVERNMENTS WITH ADVICE, TECHNICAL EQUIPMENT, TRANSPORTATION, MONEY AND HARD INFO ON SMUGGLING ACTIVITIES WHEN AVAILABLE. AS CITED IN REFS, [REDACTED] HAS ALREADY INITIATED SUCH MATERIAL SUPPORT TO GUATEMALAN TREASURY GUARD TO BUILD UP ITS COLLECTION CAPABILITIES.

C. REGARDING COLONEL SOSA'S UNILATERAL PENETRATION OF THE CUSTOMS HOUSES ALONG THE BORDER, MEXICO CITY STATION CAN DISCUSS SIMILAR POSSIBILITY WITH LITEMPO-8 TO SEND PERSONNEL TO PENETRATE MEXICAN CUSTOMS HOUSES. THIS MIGHT REQUIRE FINANCIAL AID FROM MEXICO CITY STATION TO PAY SALARIES OF ADDITIONAL EMPLOYEE/AGENTS.

2. UNILATERALLY, STATIONS PLANS

A. EXPLOITATION OF WHATEVER POTENTIAL LIRING-3 AND MORRIS K. DUMPIET MAY HAVE IN PENETRATING GUATEMALAN GUERRILLA MOVEMENT AND ARMS TRAFFIC RING. THESE PLANS DISCUSSED IN SEPARATE CABLES.

SECRET

B. LIRENO-1, FORMER MEXICAN IMMIGRATION OFFICER, WILL BE QUERIED ON HIS ABILITY RECONTACT FORMER COLLEAGUES ALONG BORDER AREA WHO HAVE ACCESS INFO ON ARMS SMUGGLING FOR POSSIBLE UNILATERAL RECRUITMENT. THIS DIFFICULT OPERATION, HOWEVER, BECAUSE OF COMMO PROBLEMS CREATED BY DISTANCE FROM MEXICO CITY. ALSO, ANYONE WHO NOT FROM BORDER AREA EASILY SPOTTED BY LOCALS AND WOULD CREATE SUSPICION.

C. ON 5 OR 6 JAN 67, MEXICAN AND GUATEMALAN AUTHORITIES PLAN MEET TO DISCUSS SMUGGLING ACTIVITIES AND WHAT THESE GOVERNMENTS CAN DO TO JOINTLY SMASH ARMS TRAFFIC. [REDACTED] WILL FIND OUT WHO ATTENDED MEETING AND WHAT WAS AGREED UPON TO GIVE MEXICO CITY STATION CLEARER IDEA OF FOLLOW UP POSSIBILITIES.

D. IN VIEW FACT LIREBEL-1 TRIP TO CUBA HAS NOT PANNED OUT TO DATE AND FACT HE COULD BE OF IMMEDIATE USE TO [REDACTED] [REDACTED] IN WORKING WITH GUATEMALAN GOVERNMENT ON GUERRILLAS AND ARMS TRAFFIC, PLAN CANCEL CUBA TRAVEL AND HAVE HIM RE-ENTER

E. DESPITE LINLUCK ASSESSMENT CAPUANO WHICH SHOWED OBVIOUS PREJUDICE, STATION INTENDS REVAMP PLANS FOR CAPUANO RECRUITMENT ATTEMPT. CABLE TO FOLLOW.

3. ONE OF MAIN POINTS IN ENTIRE CASE IS HOW SERIOUS IS SMUGGLING THREAT. THERE ARE THOUSANDS OF ARMS IN GUATEMALA FROM VARIOUS HISTORICAL INCIDENTS (1954 FALL OF ARBENZ REGIME; 13 NOV 1950 UPRISING WHEN LARGE AMOUNTS OF ARMS TAKEN FROM GUATEMALAN MILITARY; 1961 WHEN ARMS LEFT IN GUATEMALA TRAINING SITES AFTER BAY OF PIGS; AND CONTINUOUS INFILTRATION OF ARMS ON SMALL SCALE OVER PAST SEVERAL YEARS). WOPACT GOALS OF JOINT OPERATION ARE TO DETERMINE EXTENT OF ARMS SMUGGLING INTO GUATEMALA FROM MEXICO AND ASSIST GUATEMALAN AND MEXICAN AUTHORITIES IN EFFORT REDUCE ARMS TRAFFIC AND GUERRILLA THREAT AS MUCH AS POSSIBLE.

4. CANNOT ESTIMATE COST OR DURATION OF OPERATION YET, BUT EXPECT SOME FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE MAY BE REQUIRED TO HELP BOTH GOVERNMENTS ESTABLISH INTELLIGENCE NETWORKS IN BORDER AREA. THIS, OF COURSE, IS IN ADDITION TO TECHNICAL AND OTHER

1. AT THIS JUNCTURE OF LIRING-3 OPERATION FEEL L-3 SHOULD SEND LETTER TO ARNOLD RODRIGUEZ IN HAVANA VIA CHANNEL SETUP BY LATTER DURING L-3'S LAST VISIT TO CUBA OUTLING FOLLOWING:

A. L-3 STILL LOOKING INTO POSSIBILITY SUPPLY CHEMICALS ASKED FOR BY RODRIGUEZ AND WILL ADVISE.

B. HE MEANWHILE CONTACTED HIS CENTRAL AMERICAN FRIENDS TO OFFER ASSISTANCE, AND JUST RETURNED FROM VISIT TO GUATEMALA WHERE TALKED WITH REPS OF "FAR" GUERRILLA GROUP.

C. HE DISTURBED TO HEAR FROM GUAT GUERRILLAS THAT LATTER NOT RECEIVING CUBAN ASSISTANCE AND TRICONTINENTAL COMMITTEE MEETING AGREEMENTS NOT CARRIED OUT. FROM GUERRILLAS OWN STATEMENTS APPEARS SOVIETS MAY BE REPLACING CUBANS IN GUIDANCE AND SUPPORT OF REVOLUTION IN GUATEMALA.

D. IN ORDER MAINTAIN CUBAN REVOLUTIONARY INFLUENCE IN GUATEMALA AND OTHER CENTRAL AMERICAN COUNTRIES AND COUNTER-ACT POSSIBLE SOVIET EFFORTS TO SQUEEZE OUT CUBANS, CUBAN HELP MUST BE CONTINUED

E. IT WOULD SERVE PURPOSES OF CUBAN REVOLUTION WELL IF CUBANS MADE TIMELY "DONATION" OF QUANTITY OF ANTI-BIOTICS AND OTHER SUPPLIES NEEDED BY GUERRILLAS. GIVEN THE NECESSARY FUNDS, L-3 COULD PURCHASE, TRANSPORT AND DELIVER SUCH SUPPLIES TO GUERRILLAS IN NAME FIDEL CASTRO.

Carlos JURADO, a Mexican artist and existentialist, is an unwilling informant who has Mexican far-left political convictions. He has been asked by his handler and developer Wallace B. RAYTON, a G-16 staff agent under retirement cover in Mexico, to act as a contact for the CIA but is not yet amenable to a recruitment attempt. JURADO's wife, Marian MONTY, a Chinese-Cuban, worked in the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City up to November 1960 for LINCOLN and LINING-2. RAYTON pretends to be a Greek business man interested in developing lucrative, semi-legal business with Cuba. He has convinced JURADO that to be successful the two of them must be fully aware of all the realities of Cuban politics and commerce. JURADO, who lived in Cuba for a couple of years following CASTRO's accession, has maintained friendships with some well-placed contacts in CIA. He has made three trips to Havana in connection with his relationship with RAYTON, who obtains information from JURADO by eliciting and direct questioning.

As a result of the injection of JURADO by Station Mexico City into the sensational Julian LOPEZ Mac Guatemalan Arms Smuggling case, JURADO was asked by the Cuban Embassy to help them with their sensitive activities in Mexico and to go to Havana for a briefing on what he could do. RAYTON was brought into the case, Station Mexico City furnished him with some theretofore undisclosed information on the arrest by Mexican authorities of Lucha Diaz, a Cuban diplomat, allegedly stemming from a Guatemalan reporter who had obtained it from a member of the Guatemalan Communist party. In Havana, JURADO discussed the case with his best contact, Arnol RODRIGUEZ Camps, a former Vice-Minister in the Cuban Foreign Ministry. However, instead of being briefed on sensitive projects, he was requested by the Cubans to attempt to obtain weed-killer (possibly as a test of his commercial contact's bona fides). He was also given a private letter channel to RODRIGUEZ via the Cuban Ambassador in Mexico City and the Cuban Foreign Minister. In an effort to maintain or "prove" bonafides, the Station plans to have JURADO attempt to obtain weed-killer and afford appropriate excuses for failure to consummate a deal.
